SEC NETWORK +

WHAT IT IS:

Also referred to as SEC Network Plus, this is the digital platform for the SEC Network showcasing live SEC athletic events, inclusive of:

- 550+ digital-only events not available on TV
- SEC Network overflow events

HOW TO WATCH IT:

- SEC Network + is only available through WatchESPN (accessible through the WatchESPN app and on SECNetwork.com)
- To access SEC Network + on WatchESPN, fans must sign in with their credentials from a participating TV provider

THE SEC NETWORK AND GATORVISION ONLINE:

- GatorVision.tv will continue to showcase Gator features, weekly updates and postgame highlights and interviews
- GatorVision.tv will no longer broadcast live games or replays of games – all of those events will now air through SEC Network +
- Almost every Gator baseball game at home not on television will be available for viewing via SEC Network +

THE GATORS ON TELEVISION (1988-PRESENT)

- 726 appearances since the 1988 campaign
- Florida is averaging nearly 38 games on television each season during Kevin O'Sullivan's nine-year tenure
- Few schools can boast the Gators' extensive television coverage
- UF's total of 61 games on television in 2016 was a school record, including 27 games on national networks (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNNews, SEC Network)
- UF appeared on seven different networks last year

ALFRED A. McKETHAN STADIUM AT PERRY FIELD

The University of Florida is home to Alfred A. McKethan Stadium at Perry Field. The friendly confines of McKethan Stadium have been an important ingredient to the success of Gator baseball for over two decades. Since its opening in 1988, the Orange and Blue has been one of the toughest teams in the nation to defeat at home in posting a 813-271 (.750) record during the span.

Head coach Kevin O'Sullivan boasts a 265-74 (.782) record at McKethan Stadium in his eight-year tenure and Florida is an eye-popping 64-14 (.821) in three-game series on his watch. The Gators put together a school-record 29-game home winning streak between May of 2015 and April 8, 2016, and have swept six Regionals and claimed five Super Regionals held on their own turf under O'Sullivan.

Over the past decade, over one million fans have enjoyed watching the Gators take the field against elite programs from across the nation each season.

Florida's success on the diamond has led to unparalleled accomplishments for the school at the gates over the past decade, recording the top-10 single-game crowds and the five biggest three-game series totals. During that time frame, UF has drawn 45 crowds in excess of 5,000 fans and established a single-game record with 6,244 fans for a Saturday night game agaisnt No. 10 Mississippi State in 2016.

In 2016, the Gators established a school record for total attendance (154,743) and their season average of 3,967 fans was the highest in school history.

McKethan Stadium boasts a capacity of 5,500, including 5,100 grandstand seats and 400 bleacher seats extending down the outfield lines in left field. In 1998, when the squad reached the College World Series for the fourth time, the Gators' success helped Florida attract over 105,262 fans that season, setting then-school records for total attendance and per game average (2,631 fans).

As a result of its top attendance marks, Florida has been selected to host an NCAA Regional, one of the true tests for a collegiate baseball facility, 14 times. UF played host to Regional action in 1989, 1991, 1992, 1996, 1998, 2002, 2005, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015 and 2016 and also hosted the 1989 Southeastern Conference Tournament, 2005, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2016 NCAA Super Regionals at the venue.

The Gators have certainly benefited from their home crowd, having advanced to the CWS from Gainesville on nine occasions: 1991, 1996, 1998, 2005, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2016.

McKETHAN STADIUM ATTENDANCE NOTES

The Gators broke every attendance record in 2016, recording the highest season total (154,743), single game (6,244 vs. Mississippi State, 4/9) and average attendance (3,967) in school history.

Florida baseball has...

- Attracted nearly 800,000 fans during the 1990's and drawn over 1.8 million fans in the 2000's
- Averaged over 2,000+ fans per game in 18 of the last 21 years
- Welcomed over 80,000+ fans per season in 18 of the last 21 years
- Totaled over 50,000+ fans per season for 23-straight seasons
- Registered 45 crowds over 5,000 fans
- Ranked among the nation's top-15 schools in college baseball attendance in 17 of the last 19 seasons
- Rated among the nation's top-25 schools in attendance for 21-consecutive seasons
- Hosted 14 NCAA Regionals and seven Super Regionals in Gainesville since the introduction of McKethan Stadium

In addition to the entertaining brand of college baseball, fans enjoy spacious seating close to the field in the beautiful Florida sun. They are treated to theatre-like field-level seating, quality concession areas, an outstanding scoreboard featuring up-to-date player statistics, clean restrooms and abundant parking, along with a first-class press box for media covering the Gator program.

McKethan Stadium underwent a $350,000 plaza development project in 1996 that produced a new main entrance and created a plaza/courtyard atmosphere for fans surrounding the main grandstand. Construction over the previous summer had added 1,000 seats to the main grandstand to replace seating lost through prior construction and press box expansion.

The press box was rebuilt during the fall of 1996 with the aid of an additional gift of $300,000 from Mr. McKethan. The actual playing field, one of the best in the SEC, underwent an upgrade during the summer of 1997, with the field leveled and new grass planted. Capacity was also increased to 5,000 at that time, with seats added along the left-field line and beyond the left-field fence. During the 2003 off-season, a brand-new Gator skin outfield fence and a padded backstop were attached. The infield and pitching mound were also graded and leveled and more outfield drainage was added. Lights were first installed at the stadium in 1977 thanks to a generous contribution from New York Yankees' owner George Steinbrenner, a Bull Gator booster.

McKethan Stadium is complemented by the $5-million-dollar Lemerand Athletic Center located on Stadium Road cornering up to James G. Pressly Stadium at Percy Beard Track and McKethan Stadium at Perry Field. It is a multistory 46,000-square-foot building that provides locker rooms, equipment storage, training and sports medicine, along with coaches' offices for the Gator softball, track & field and volleyball programs.

A $13-million dollar expansion to McKethan Stadium and the Lemerand Athletic Center that was completed in September of 2006 enhances Florida's complex even more. The construction project resulted in additional stadium seating and a baseball-specific building that includes a training facility, video room, offices and locker rooms, as well as a new bullpen/batting cage building with concessions and an upper deck overlooking the playing field. A high-resolution Daktronics video board was introduced beyond the right-field fence during the 2012 campaign that provides fans with even more statistical information about the game and spotlights other Gator events on campus.

The Don and Irene Dizney Plaza overlooks left field and is a spectacular vantage point for all of the action. Other major donors for the project included Gary and Nancy Condron, Rob Gidel, Tommy Oakley, the late George Sanders and W. Kelly Smith.

ALFRED A. McKETHAN (1908-2002)

A native Floridian, Mr. Alfred A. McKethan distinguished himself in his profession and service to the state of Florida. He served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Sun Bank and Trust Company (formerly Hernando State Bank) from 1942-94, at which time he retired. At the age of 38, McKethan became the youngest president of the Florida Bankers Association. Along with his brother, John W. McKethan, he established the Brooksville Rock Company, which later became known as the Florida Mining and Materials Corporation.

McKethan was also a citrus grower, serving as the Director and Chairman of the Brooksville Citrus Growers Association for 40 years, and as Director of the Florida Citrus Exchange for 15 years. He was a board member and Chairman for the Florida State Road Department and was the first Chairman of the Southwest Florida Water Management District. In addition, the Sunshine Skyway Bridge across Tampa Bay was due in part from the works of McKethan, as well as the initial planning of the Florida Turnpike.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida as an honors graduate in 1931, and maintained close ties as an alumnus. In 1981, it was McKethan who became the first eminent scholar under a new law that provided matching funds from the state to create chairs at Florida universities if the private sector donated $600,000. He later made his donation to UF's College of Business Administration. Also active on campus, McKethan was a member of the President's Council, a long-time Bull Gator and had been an instrumental and active member of Gator Boosters.

A Distinguished Director of Gator Boosters, he was a major benefactor to the University of Florida in many ways over the years. An avid baseball fan, McKethan attended games whenever possible each Gator season. The original 1988 stadium construction and refurbishment was made possible through his generous $2.4-million contribution. In 1996, college baseball's fanciest and most luxurious press box was rebuilt with the aid of an additional gift of $300,000 from McKethan.

"When you talk of Gator spirit and love for the University," said former Florida football coach Steve Spurrier, "Alfred McKethan embodies what that is all about."

McKethan passed away in April of 2002 at the age of 93 and the Gator players and coaching staff honored him by wearing black A.A.M. patches on their hats. His initials were also put above the scoreboard at the stadium bearing his name.

GATOR FANS' CODE OF CONDUCT

Gator fans are widely known for their enthusiasm, team support, hospitality and sportsmanship. Our image is shaped not only by our student-athletes, coaches, students and faculty, but by our fans as well. Our goal is to create a first-class environment to lend support to our team while maintaining a safe and fun atmosphere for visiting fans as well.

PROHIBITED BEHAVIOR

Rowdy, threatening, or inconsiderate behavior, such as standing in the aisles, portals or concourses, profane and abusive language, smoking in public areas, fighting, and drunkenness will not be tolerated and can result in ejection, arrest, and/or loss of season-ticket privileges. Throwing of any objects in the stands, including paper and plastic cups will also be prohibited. Should you observe any of this disruptive behavior, please notify your nearest law enforcement officer.

NCAA policy prevents fans from entering the dugout area or field of play unless they are properly credentialed or accompanied by an authorized staff member. Violators are subject to arrest.

ENFORCEMENT

Individuals found violating any policies can be removed from the stadium. Non-students, while not affected by the Student Conduct Code, are subject to arrest and prosecution under applicable laws and state statutes. Students involved in such activities or other disruptive behavior will also be subject to disciplinary action through the office of Student Services and University of Florida's Code of Student Conduct. Students enjoy the rights and privileges that accrue to membership in a university community and are subject to the responsibilities which accompany that membership. The University Athletic Association reserves the right to remove the ticket holder from the premises if in the sole opinion of the security personnel his or her conduct endangers or disrupts the players, coaches, officials or fans. Gator Athletics thanks you for your support.

ORIGIN OF PERRY FIELD

Perry Field is named for Carl E. "Tootie" Perry, a lineman for the Gator football team in 1916 and from 1919-21. A Gainesville product, his family owned the land where the current baseball stadium and track are located. They donated to the University with the stipulation that the field be named for their son.

FLORIDA BASEBALL COMPLEX

In September 2016, the University Athletic Association Board of Directors was presented with a proposal for the next wave of facility projects that figures to provide $100 million worth of improvements -- including major renovations to Alfred A. McKethan Stadium and the entire baseball complex. Included in the plans for the baseball stadium are a new roofing structure to provide shade for fans, five new rows of premium seating directly behind home plate, new club seating and an expanded press box, a new second-level concourse, plus refurbished and improved player amenities.

2016 ABCA/Diamond South Region Coach of the Year

Now in his 10th season at the University of Florida, Kevin O'Sullivan and his staff have transformed the Gators into one of the marquee programs in college baseball.

During a tenure which has been marked by tireless recruiting and fundamental coaching, he has overseen a progression up the national ladder by the Orange and Blue that has been punctuated by five trips to the NCAA College World Series in the past seven years, highlighted by a runner-up performance in 2011, three Southeastern Conference titles in the past six years (2010-11-14), as well as nine NCAA Tournaments in a row and four SEC Eastern Division crowns.

People often pointed to the stretch of 1996-98 as the best run in Gator history since those teams were a combined 136-60 (.694) with CWS appearances in 1996 and 1998, a pair of SEC titles ('96 and '98) and three SEC East trophies. However, O'Sullivan's three teams from 2010-12 were 147-56 (.724) with three-straight CWS appearances for the first time in school history, three-straight NCAA Regional and Super Regional crowns, consecutive SEC Championships and a pair of SEC Eastern Division titles in '10 and '11 and the league's tournament championship in 2011.

O'Sullivan has had 69 players taken in the Major League Baseball Draft since his arrival at UF and the Gators' total of 56 selections in the last seven Drafts leads the nation. Florida has had 15 players taken within the first three rounds of the last six Drafts.

Florida boasts six first-round selections in the last five years: Zunino at No. 3 to the Seattle Mariners and Johnson at No. 31 to the Boston Red Sox in 2012, right-hander Jonathon Crawford at No. 20 to the Detroit Tigers in 2013, shortstop Richie Martin at No. 20 to the Oakland A's in 2015 and pitchers A.J. Puk at No. 6 to the A's and Dane Dunning at No. 29 to the Washington Nationals in 2016

Rodriguez was the first player from the 2012 MLB Draft to reach the Majors, while Zunino became the first position player to reach baseball's highest level.

The 2016 season was another record breaking year for Florida, as the Gators turned in the best regular season (44-11) in program history and equaled the second-most wins in school history with a 52-16 final record. After earning yet another national seed, Florida advanced to the College World Series for the second year in a row and fifth time under O'Sullivan.

Florida has been a top-8 national seed in seven of the past eight seasons (No. 8 in 2009, No. 3 in 2010, No. 2 in 2011, No. 1 in 2012, No. 2 in 2014, No. 4 in 2015, No. 1 in 2016) – the highest amount in the country in that time frame. The Gators finished in the top 10 in the final polls for the fifth time under O'Sullivan.

On the season, UF had a 16-9 record against ranked opponents and finished the year undefeated in midweek contests (14-0). Florida was 19-2 against in-state competition, including a 2-1 series win at No. 6 Miami and a 5-1 record against Florida State – who the Gators eliminated in the Gainesville Super Regional.

The Gators racked up the individual honors as well, with five players earning All-America recognition. Right-handed pitcher Logan Shore was a unanimous First Team selection while first baseman Peter Alonso and righty Shaun Anderson also earned First Team honors. Sophomores Alex Faedo and JJ Schwarz also earned All-America honors. In addition, Jonathan India and Deacon Liput were named Freshman All-America selections.

Shore was also named the SEC Pitcher of the Year, just the second player in school history to earn the honor (Justin Hoyman, 2004). Anderson and Shore were First Team All-SEC selections while Alonso, shortstop Dalton Guthrie and catcher Mike Rivera earned Second Team honors.

Following the year, the Gators had another stellar draft class enter the professional ranks. Florida had an amazing six players drafted in the first three rounds, including a pair of first round picks in Puk and Dunning. Alonso, Shore and Buddy Reed were selected in the second round while Anderson went in the third round. Lefties Scott Moss (fourth round) and Kirby Snead (10th round) brought the Gators total draft picks under O'Sullivan to 69.

Off the field, the Gators had 14 student-athletes named to the 2016 Spring Academic Honor Roll, giving Florida 94 Academic All-SEC recipients under O'Sullivan. Six newcomers were named to the 2015-16 First Year Academic Honor Roll, bringing O'Sullivan's total of honorees to 41.

The Gators enjoyed a tremendous season in 2015, claiming the SEC Tournament and sweeping both the Regional and Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium in making a triumphant return to Omaha and finishing one win shy of the CWS Championship Finals.

O'Sullivan directed the squad to a 52-18 record, the second-most victories in school history, Florida placed third in the final polls and ousted Sunshine State rivals Florida State and Miami from the postseason in the same year for the first time in school history. UF boasted a trio of All-Americans: outfielder Harrison Bader, catcher/designated hitter JJ Schwarz and third baseman Josh Tobias, while second baseman Dalton Guthrie, catcher/designated hitter Mike Rivera and Schwarz were recognized as Freshman All-Americans.

Schwarz was the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) National Freshman Hitter of the Year and was Louisville Slugger's Co-Freshman of the Year and the rookie joined left-hander A.J. Puk, outfielder Buddy Reed and right-hander Logan Shore on the USA Collegiate National Team last summer.

Florida set a school record with a .984 fielding percentage, the second-best clip in NCAA history, and was 12-3 (.800) during the postseason – 8-2 (.800) in the NCAA Tournament and 4-1 (.800) at the SEC Tournament. Continuing the pipeline to the professional ranks, UF had nine players chosen in the MLB Draft. After Martin was a first-round selection, Bader went in the third round to St. Louis and was followed by right-hander Eric Hanhold (sixth round, Milwaukee), left-hander Danny Young (eighth round, Toronto), right-hander Taylor Lewis (ninth round, Atlanta), Tobias (10th round, Philadelphia), left-hander Bobby Poyner (14th round, Boston), right-hander Mike Vinson (24th round, Detroit) and right-hander Aaron Rhodes (28th round, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim). Nine student-athletes were named to the 2015 Spring SEC Academic Honor Roll and Guthrie was chosen to the 2014-15 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

2014 proved to be another strong campaign for the Orange and Blue, as O'Sullivan guided Florida to its third SEC crown in the past five seasons and was honored by his peers as the SEC Coach of the Year for the second time. He became the fourth skipper from Florida to earn the award multiple times, joining Dave Fuller (1952-56-62), Jack Rhine (1982-83) and Joe Arnold (1984-88). The Gators claimed a school-record 12 league outings in a row from April 12-May 9 and finished with a 21-9 conference mark, including sweeps of No. 4 LSU, Georgia, Missouri and No. 20 Alabama.

At 40-23, UF reached the 40-win plateau for the fifth time in O'Sullivan's tenure. The Gators were 8-1 (.889) against top-five teams, highlighted by a season sweep of No. 1 Florida State for the second time in three years, and went 10-4 (.714) versus top-10 foes. The squad was an impressive 16-7 (.696) in contests decided by one run and notched 23 victories over teams ranked in the top 50 of the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI).

Shore was chosen as Perfect Game's National Freshman of the Year and as the SEC Freshman of the Year, becoming the third Gator in O'Sullivan's tenure to receive the league honor following Preston Tucker (2009) and Austin Maddox (2010). Shore was a consensus Freshman All-American and earned third-team All-America status from Louisville Slugger, while catcher Taylor Gushue was a second-team All-American from Louisville Slugger.

Shore became just the third starting pitcher from Florida to earn first-team All-SEC in the past 11 years, joining Justin Hoyman (2004) and Patrick Keating (2008). Gushue led the SEC in conference games with a .389 clip and was the third catcher from UF since 1991 to earn first-team accolades, along with Mario Linares (1991) and Zunino (2011-12). Bader was a second-team All-SEC honoree and the Gators led the conference with three All-SEC Freshman Team recipients: first baseman Peter Alonso, Shore and third baseman John Sternagel. Alonso also earned second-team Freshman All-America from the NCBWA.

In 2013, the Gators advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth-consecutive season, matching the longest run in school history, accomplished from 2000-05. It also marked the first time that the same coaching staff had directed the Orange and Blue into NCAA action six-straight times.

Florida completed a weekend sweep of No. 8 South Carolina (3-2, 4-3, 14-5) from April 11-13, marking only the fourth time in school history that the Gators had swept the Gamecocks in a regular-season series, the first time since 2009. Tobias snapped a 3-3 tie with a sacrifice fly in the ninth inning to drive in Bader with the decisive run in a 4-3 victory at No. 7 Florida State, the second year in a row that UF had emerged victorious in Tallahassee. With a team-leading .312 batting average, Bader earned a berth on the SEC All-Freshman Team. A Gator freshman has made the team every year of O'Sullivan's tenure.

Florida had seven players chosen in the 2013 MLB Draft, led by Crawford at No. 20 to the Detroit Tigers, becoming the highest selection for a Gator pitcher since John Burke was taken by the Houston Astros at No. 6 overall in 1991. An additional 11 signees were picked and a school-record eight individuals chose to attend the University of Florida instead. Twelve Gators were named to the Spring SEC Academic Honor Roll, the most for the program since 2008, when 17 individuals were recognized. Five other players were chosen to the 2012-13 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

The Gators entered 2012 as the consensus No. 1 team and occupied the top spot for a total of 42 times in the four major polls (12 in NCBWA, 11 in Baseball America, 11 in USA Today/ESPN, eight in Collegiate Baseball). Florida was awarded the top national seed in the NCAA Tournament, its fourth-straight year within the Top-8 seeds, and became one of two programs to advance to the CWS in the last three campaigns. O'Sullivan's club swept the NCAA Gainesville Regional with victories over Bethune-Cookman (4-0) and Georgia Tech (6-2, 15-3) and then defeated NC State twice (7-1, 9-8) in the Gainesville Super Regional to advance to the College World Series.

With a 47-20 (.701) record, Florida reached the 40-win plateau for the fourth-straight year under O'Sullivan, and the team won 100 games over the past two seasons (53-19 in 2011 and 47-20 in 2012). The 2012 season marked the 11th time that McKethan Stadium had hosted NCAA Regional action and the fourth-straight year for the first time in school history. O'Sullivan passed Arnold (1988, 1991) and Andy Lopez (1996, 1998) as the Gator head coaches with the most trips to Omaha.

Facing the nation's most difficult schedule according to Warren Nolan and rated No. 2 in the NCAA's final RPI, the Gators established a school record with an 18-game winning streak from February 21-March 22 and raced out of the gates with a 23-2 record. Florida led the nation in home runs (75) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.65), was second in fewest walks allowed per 9 innings (2.07) and was fourth in WHIP (1.15) during the 2012 campaign. In addition, the pitching staff's earned run average of 2.92 was the lowest for the Orange and Blue since 1983 and ranked eighth in the country.

Trailing 5-3 in the ninth inning and down to its final two outs, UF erupted for five runs to hand No. 8 Miami an 8-5 setback to sweep

GATOR HEAD COACHES

"The University of Florida has enjoyed a lot of success with young, talented coaches and those were the characteristics we were looking for in the person to lead our baseball program. We found that person in Kevin O'Sullivan."

the weekend series in Coral Gables and increase its winning streak over the Hurricanes to 11 games. Florida rallied from a 3-0 deficit with six unanswered runs to defeat top-ranked Florida State in Tallahassee, 6-3, to complete a three-game sweep of the regular-season series between the Sunshine State rivals for the first time since 1958. The Gators had previously emerged victorious against the Seminoles in Gainesville (9-2) and in Jacksonville (4-1). The Gators posted an unblemished 10-0 record against schools from the Atlantic Coast Conference: 3-0 over Florida State and Miami in the regular season and 2-0 over Georgia Tech and NC State during NCAA play.

Zunino was Florida's first-ever winner of the 2012 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award, the 26th recipient of the Dick Howser Trophy as College Baseball's Player of the Year and collected the school's inaugural Johnny Bench Award. Baseball America's College Player of the Year became the first UF player to win the Howser Trophy.

The highest Draft pick in school history after being chosen third overall by the Seattle Mariners, Zunino finished as the Gators' "Triple Crown" winner, leading the team in batting average (.322), RBI (67) and homers (19), and paced the squad in total bases (164), doubles (28), sacrifice flies (11) and slugging percentage (.669). According to the final NCAA statistics, he was first nationally in sacrifice flies, third in doubles, fourth in round-trippers, fifth in total bases, ninth in doubles per game, 10th in RBI and 11th in slugging percentage.

Johnson, taken in the first round by the Boston Red Sox at No. 31 overall, became Florida's first winner of the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award. A first-team All-American by the NCBWA and Perfect Game, Johnson was a second-team All-American by Baseball America and Louisville Slugger. Chosen first-team All-SEC twice, the southpaw tossed his first career complete game to oust fourth-ranked South Carolina from the SEC Tourney and matched his career high with four hits in the semifinal round the following day against Vanderbilt. He was named to the 2012 SEC All-Tournament Team at both pitcher and designated hitter.

Tucker earned All-America acclaim from the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) for the second-straight year, All-SEC honors for the third year in a row and made the NCAA Gainesville Regional All-Tournament team for the fourth time. He departed Gainesville as the school's all-time leader in games played (265), games started (259), total bases (596), at bats (1,035), hits (341), RBI (258) and doubles (70).

Tucker was a first-team All-SEC selection in 2012 after being a first-team choice during his junior season and a second-team pick in 2010. He powered UF's offense with a .393 (11-for-28) performance in NCAA play and became the first Gator to achieve Regional All-Tournament status all four years of his career. He is the lone UF player to earn Most Outstanding Player recognition twice (2009 & 2011). In 30 career NCAA Tourney games, Tucker batted .368 (46-for-125) and holds school records in career at bats (125), hits (46), RBI (31), runs (29), homers (11) and doubles (10). He was one of 10 NCAA baseball student-athletes named as a finalist for the 2012 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

Austin Maddox, Hudson Randall, Tucker and Zunino were named All-South Region by the ABCA/Rawlings. The four selections matched the highest total in school history (1978, 1979, 1991, 1996, 2005, 2011). Tucker and Zunino were voted onto the first team for the second-straight year and joined a select group of Gators who earned first-team recognition multiple times: Jim Watkins (1978-79), Scott Ruskin (1984-85) and Matt LaPorta (2005 & 2007). Randall was a second-team pick for the second year in a row and Maddox was on the second team as well.

Florida boasted four first-team All-SEC selections for the first time since 1991. O'Sullivan's club had a total of five All-SEC picks, the third-straight year that it had placed five or more recipients on the list. Fontana and Tucker joined an elite group of Gators on the diamond who has achieved All-SEC status three times, a fraternity that includes Josh Adams (2008-09-11), Mike Stanley (1982-84-85), Marc Valdes (1991-92-93) and Brad Wilkerson (1996-97-98). Johnson, Rodriguez, Tucker and Zunino were chosen first-team All-SEC, Nolan Fontana earned second-team recognition, while Tobias was chosen to the league's All-Freshman Team. Fontana was named to the SEC All-Defensive Team for the third year in a row, matching den Dekker (2008-10) for the most appearances on the list by a Gator, and Zunino was a repeat honoree.

Crawford became the first Gator hurler to register a complete-game no-hitter since Burke accomplished the feat in a 2-0 shutout of Furman on May 23, 1991, by overpowering Bethune-Cookman on June 1 in the NCAA Gainesville Regional opener. A member of the 2012 USA Collegiate National Team, Crawford turned in a 3-0 record over the summer with a 2.10 ERA, highlighted by a pair of victories over powerhouse Cuba in Havana. He earned a bronze medal at the Haarlem Honkbal Week in the Netherlands, starting the semifinal contest against Cuba and carrying a shutout into the eighth inning.

Florida continued its dominance at McKethan Stadium in 2012, compiling a 31-8 (.795) mark, highlighted by sweeps of the NCAA Gainesville Regional and Super Regionals and a 7-2 series record. UF's total attendance of 153,484 was just shy of 2011's record total of 153,904, the average attendance of 3,935 per game established a new standard and the 6,108 fans on hand for the third game of the LSU series on April 7 was a single-game record. The Orange and Blue registered a school-record 24-game winning streak from April 24, 2010-March 8, 2011.

O'Sullivan earned 2011 College Coach of the Year honors from Baseball America, becoming the first coach from UF to collect the publication's yearly accolade. On its way to a school-record 53 victories, Florida earned a trip to Omaha in consecutive seasons for the first time. Although the Gators fell in the CWS Championship Finals to South Carolina, they notched a second-place showing for the second time in school history (2005).

O'Sullivan's team secured the All-SEC final round by downing Texas (8-4) and then knocking off league rival Vanderbilt twice (3-1, 6-4). The No. 2 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, the Gators swept the NCAA Gainesville Regional with victories over Manhattan (17-3) and Miami (FL) (5-4, 11-4) and then defeated Mississippi State twice (11-1, 3-4, 8-6) in a classic Gainesville Super Regional to advance to the College World Series.

The 53 wins marked the third of the four times that the program exceeded 50 wins. UF stayed in the top five all season long in the USA Today/ESPN rankings, spent nine weeks at No. 1 in Baseball America and eight weeks in the top spot according to Collegiate Baseball. The Gators blanked Vanderbilt, 5-0, to capture the 2011 SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala. It was the first time in 20 years that Florida won the league's tourney and the triumph also represented the first time since 1988 that the Orange and Blue had taken the SEC and SEC Tourney in the same season. With a 22-8 performance in the SEC that matched South Carolina and Vanderbilt, Florida became the East winner for the third year in a row, matching its feat from 1996-98. The Gators claimed eight of their 10 SEC series and the team's 22 victories in league play matched the school record set in 2010. The pitching staff twirled 11 shutouts in 72 games, breaking the previous school record for shutouts (10 in 1970).

Zunino was named the SEC Player of the Year, joining LaPorta (2005, '07) as Gators who have earned the league's top accolade and Whitson was tabbed as the National Freshman Pitcher of the Year by Perfect Game. Tucker and Zunino were named All-Americans and were joined on the All-South Region squad by Adams and Randall, while Whitson was honored as a Freshman All-American by four different organizations.

eight in both 1999 and 2002.

The Gators compiled a 34-7 (.829) mark and a 9-1 series record at McKethan Stadium in '11, featuring weekend sweeps of Alabama, Boston College, Miami (FL), Ole Miss, Rhode Island, USF and Tennessee. UF's total attendance of 153,904 became the high-water mark, the average attendance of 3,753 per game eclipsed the previous high of 3,514 in 2006 and the Gators drew a then-record 5,930 fans for Florida State's visit.

Returning a talented nucleus and welcoming a recruiting class hailed as the nation's best by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball, O'Sullivan directed the Gators to a 47-17 overall record in 2010 that featured a program-best 22-8 league mark and the school's first SEC title in five years. Voted the SEC Coach of the Year, he molded a lineup that featured five All-SEC recipients and a record five Freshman All-Americans from Baseball America into a cohesive unit that made it to Omaha for the first time since '05.

Facing a schedule ranked second in the country, the Gators captured nine of their 10 league series, including a run of eight-straight, and defeated South Carolina on the final weekend of the regular season to claim the SEC Championship. Seeded third in the NCAA Tournament, O'Sullivan's club overpowered Bethune-Cookman (7-3), Oregon State (10-2) and Florida Atlantic (15-0) in the NCAA Gainesville Regional to join the 2004 and 2005 Gator teams as the only ones in school history at that time to collect Regional titles in consecutive seasons. The following weekend, UF claimed the first two Super Regional meetings with Miami (FL) to secure a CWS berth in the event's final go-round at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Noted for his pitching acumen, O'Sullivan oversaw a Florida pitching staff that lowered its team earned run average for the third year in a row (4.13) and finished second in the nation in fewest walks allowed per nine innings (2.15). UF's starting pitchers were 30-15 with a 3.94 ERA and its bullpen was 17-2 and tied the school record of 18 saves. Chapman was chosen as a third-team All-American by the NCBWA, becoming the first Gator pitcher to earn All-America status since Hoyman in 2004. He also garnered second-team All-South Region accolades and was the lone UF representative to collect first-team All-SEC honors.

The quintet of Fontana, Johnson, Maddox, Randall and Zunino thrived in their debut seasons under O'Sullivan and all achieved both Freshman All-America and Freshman All-SEC status. The SEC's Freshman of the Year, Maddox was named a third-team All-American by the NCBWA. The slugger was the first rookie from Florida to earn All-America recognition since Wilkerson accomplished the feat in 1996 and earned second-team All-SEC recognition.

Fontana became the first player in school history to be named to the Rawlings NCAA Division I Gold Glove Team and was the lone freshman selected to the nine-player positional squad. He and Johnson each brought home a silver medal from the V FISU World University Championships in Tokyo, Japan, while playing for the 2010 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team as the only freshmen on the roster.

The Gators compiled a 33-3 (.917) mark at McKethan Stadium that established a team record for winning percentage. The win total was the second-highest since the facility opened in 1988, trailing just a 35-5 (.875) record in 1998. Since broken, UF's total attendance of 126,195 eclipsed the school's previous standard set in 2006 (123,022) and the average attendance was 3,505 per game.

Under O'Sullivan's tutelage in 2009, the Gators produced a 42-22 mark, captured the SEC East, rolled through the NCAA Gainesville Regional and earned the squad's first trip to Super Regionals in four years. Florida finished one game back in the race for the SEC Championship and 27 of the club's 42 victories were come-from-behind efforts, including 13 against league foes. After capping its season with the program's third NCAA Super Regional appearance, UF was listed in the top 15 within all four of the collegiate baseball polls.

Evidence of the increased player development under O'Sullivan was shown by a then-school-record 10 Gators and 12 signees being chosen during the 2009 MLB Draft. The previous high of eight UF players was set in 1999 and equaled in 2002, and the total tied for second nationally behind league rival Georgia (11).

In his first year as a head coach, he directed the Gators to their first NCAA Regional appearance since 2005 and a second-place finish in the East after being picked 11th in the 12-team league. O'Sullivan was just the fourth Florida skipper to lead the team into NCAA play in his debut season and guided the squad to series triumphs over both of the SEC's division winners and College World Series representatives, Georgia and LSU.

Three of his players, Adams, den Dekker and Keating, achieved first-team All-SEC status, Florida's most on the first squad since four honorees in 1991. Adams was also a unanimous pick on the SEC All-Freshman Team and collected Freshman All-America acclaim from three different organizations. Keating became the first Gator pitcher to garner first-team All-South Region from the ABCA since Hoyman in 2004, while second-team honoree Adams was the first rookie on the squad since Wilkerson in 1996. Meanwhile, den Dekker earned a berth on the league's first-ever All-Defensive Team and represented the 2008 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team that was a perfect 24-0 on its summer tour.

When O'Sullivan took over the Gator program, one of his top priorities was turning around the team's pitching staff, which had registered a 5.27 ERA and was the highest in the SEC during the 2007 campaign. Not only did the '08 squad lower its ERA to 4.39 overall, Florida led the league in conference play with a 4.00 ERA. Offensively, UF's team batting average went from .290 to .304, and the club's .305 showing in the 30 conference games was at the top of the chart. The Gators also increased their fielding percentage and turned a league-leading 72 double plays, the fourth-most in school history.

Seventeen members of O'Sullivan's inaugural team were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The total matched the highest number of Academic All-SEC recipients for Florida baseball in school history, equaling the 17 in 2003, and marked the sixth-consecutive year that the team reached double-digit honorees. An additional five student-athletes earned a spot on the league's Freshman Academic Honor Roll, tying the Gators' best performance.

The University of Florida and Athletics Director Jeremy Foley announced O'Sullivan as its new baseball coach on June 14, 2007. O'Sullivan arrived in Gator Country after serving nine seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Clemson, where he helped the Tigers to nine-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and College World Series berths in 2000, 2002 and 2006. A native of Jupiter, Fla., O'Sullivan became the 21st head coach in school history.

"This is an exciting day and signals a new chapter for Gator baseball," Foley said. "What Kevin has accomplished as one of the top assistants in the nation with highly-respected recruiting skills and player development speaks for itself. He possesses the qualities in a head coach that we were looking for and is eager to hit the ground running. We are counting on Kevin to help return our program to the elite level of collegiate baseball."

Clemson's associate head coach since 2002, O'Sullivan and the Tigers advanced to NCAA Super Regionals in 2007 for the seventh time since the format was introduced in 1999 before succumbing to Mississippi State. At the time, the total represented the second-most in the nation. A week earlier, the Tigers claimed the Myrtle Beach Regional with an unblemished 3-0 record and ousted top-seeded Coastal Carolina.

Under his tutelage, 29 Tiger hurlers were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, including five in 2007. A school-record 11 Clemson players were taken, highlighted by left-hander Daniel Moskos going fourth overall to the Pittsburgh Pirates. During O'Sullivan's tenure, 11 pitchers were picked in the top-five rounds, including a trio of first-rounders: Mike Paradis (1999), Tyler Lumsden (2004) and Moskos.

He spent the 1998 season with the Twins' Rookie League team in Fort Myers, Fla., that reached the playoffs for the first time. He was also responsible for the development of the pitchers.

O'Sullivan was the pitching coach at Virginia in 1996 and 1997, where he coached All-America and first-rounder Seth Greisenger. In '96, the Cavaliers won their first-ever ACC Tournament title and were 44-21 overall. He coached a total of three pitchers in the two years who were drafted in the top-five rounds, including a first, second, and fifth-round pick, to go along with a 14th-rounder in 1997. O'Sullivan, who helped in the recruitment of student-athletes at Virginia, coached players picked in the third and 44th rounds in 1997 as well.

O'Sullivan coached at Florida Atlantic during the 1994 and 1995 seasons, where he was responsible for the hitters, catchers, infielders and outfielders. From 1992-93, he was an assistant at Florida Community College as the hitting and catching instructor.

In two years at Virginia, nine at Clemson and eight at Florida, he has coached 74 pitchers who have been drafted or signed pro contracts. This list includes six first-rounders, 20 top-five-rounders, 35 top-10-rounders and 10 All-Americans.

O'Sullivan graduated with honors from Virginia with a bachelor's degree in education/sports medicine in 1991. In Charlottesville, he was a member of UVa's Captain Council and Student-Athlete Mentor Program. He later earned a master's degree in exercise science & wellness from Florida Atlantic.

O'Sullivan starred at Virginia as a catcher in 1990 and 1991, where he hit a combined .351. He was a first-team All-ACC and All-ACC Tourney recipient both years and earned a berth on the ACC Academic Honor Roll in 1990. He also played for Florida Community College in 1988 and 1989.

ASSISTANT COACH CRAIG BELL

CRAIG BELL

ASSISTANT COACH
10TH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Craig Bell is in his 10th season with the Gator baseball program after serving as the Seattle Mariners' Supervising Area Scout for Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina in the years spanning 2000-07. At Florida, he is involved in all facets of the team and has played an integral role in Florida's rise to become one of the nation's premier programs.

Bell has been part of a talented staff that has supervised the Orange and Blue's resurgence over the past nine seasons, highlighted by UF's runner-up finish at the 2011 NCAA College World Series, five CWS appearances (2010, '11, '12, '15 and '16), nine-consecutive NCAA Regional berths, Southeastern Conference Championships in 2010, 2011 and 2014 and SEC Tournament titles in 2011 and 2015.

Evidence of the Gators' increased player development under Bell is shown by eight members of the 2010 team that have already reached the Major Leagues and Florida's total of 56 MLB Draft picks since 2010 leads the nation. UF also has a league-best 171-98 (.636) conference record over the past nine years.

The 2016 season was another record breaking year for Florida, as the Gators turned in the best regular season (44-11) in program history and equaled the second-most wins in school history with a 52-16 final record and advanced to the College World Series for the fifth time in seven years. Right-handed pitcher Logan Shore was a unanimous First Team selection while first baseman Peter Alonso and righty Shaun Anderson also earned First Team honors. Sophomores Alex Faedo and JJ Schwarz also earned All-America honors. In addition, Jonathan India and Deacon Liput were named Freshman All-America selections. Following the year, the Gators had another stellar draft class enter the professional ranks with an amazing six players drafted in the first three rounds, including a pair of first round picks in A.J. Puk and Dane Dunning.

In 2015, Florida advanced to the Omaha again and finished ranked third with an overall mark of 52-18, the second-most wins for the program. In a season filled with success, the Orange and Blue claimed the SEC Tourney with four straight victories, including triumphs over No. 1 LSU and No. 9 Vanderbilt, and swept through the Regionals and Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium. The trio of outfielder Harrison Bader, catcher/designated hitter JJ Schwarz and third baseman Josh Tobias achieved All-American status and second baseman Dalton Guthrie, catcher/designated hitter Mike Rivera and Schwarz picked up Freshman All-American honors. Schwarz was the National Freshman Hitter of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and Louisville Slugger's Co-Freshman of the Year, while nine more Gators were taken in the Major League Baseball Draft, highlighted by first-rounder Richie Martin.

In 2014, Florida captured the SEC Championship for the third time in five years and reached the 40-win plateau for the fifth time in Bell's tenure. Voted third in the Eastern Division in the SEC Coaches' Preseason Poll, the Gators went 21-9 in league play to secure the program's 13th conference title and collected its fourth East crown since 2009. The club boasted a pair of All-Americans, catcher Taylor Gushue and right-hander Logan Shore, who was Perfect Game's National Freshman of the Year and the SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, Bader, Gushue and Shore earned All-SEC recognition, first baseman Peter Alonso, Shore and third baseman John Sternagel were Freshman All-SEC and six players were selected in the MLB Draft.

The No. 1 team in the nation for the majority of 2012, the Gators were the top national seed for the NCAA Tournament and claimed all three of their outings during the Gainesville Regional for the fourth year in a row and then swept No. 11 NC State in the Gainesville Super Regional to secure the program's unprecedented third-consecutive College World Series berth en route a final record of 47-20. In a wild SEC race that came down to the final day, UF tied for second in the Eastern Division and third overall, just one game shy of a third-consecutive championship. Nine Gators were drafted, including five players in the first three rounds (Mike Zunino and Brian Johnson in the first round, second-rounders Nolan Fontana and Steven Rodriguez and Austin Maddox in the third round). Rodriguez became the first player from the 2012 Draft to reach the Major Leagues with the Los Angeles Dodgers, while starting Seattle Mariners' catcher Zunino was the first position player from that class to advance to the Majors.

Under Bell's tutelage in 2011, Florida turned in a remarkable season that culminated in a school-record 53 victories and a second-place performance in Omaha, Neb. Rated first in Baseball America's preseason rankings for the first time in school history, the Gators went 22-8 in league play for the second-straight campaign and shared the SEC Championship with South Carolina and Vanderbilt. UF blanked the Commodores, 5-0, to capture their first SEC Tournament title since 1991. After being rewarded with the second national seed for the NCAA Tournament, Florida swept through the NCAA Gainesville Regional and defeated Mississippi State in the Super Regional to reach the CWS. At TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, the Gators downed Texas (8-4) and Vanderbilt twice (3-1, 6-4) to reach the final round for the second time in school history.

In '10, the Gators captured nine of their 10 SEC series, including the final eight in a row, and brought home the 11th league title in school history by taking the final regular-season series at South Carolina. Florida finished with a school-best conference mark of 22-8, secured its second-straight SEC Eastern Division crown and its 47 victories was the second-highest total since the '05 club went 48-23. In NCAA action, UF knocked off Bethune-Cookman, Oregon State and Florida Atlantic to emerge victorious in the Gainesville Regional for the second year in a row and then defeated Sunshine State rival Miami twice in the Super Regional to punch the school's sixth ticket to Omaha.

Building upon the momentum generated from 2008, when the Gators earned their first NCAA berth in three years and were the runner-up in the SEC East, Bell's coaching efforts were rewarded with Florida advancing to NCAA Super Regionals in 2009 for the first time in four years. In addition, the Gainesville crew brought home the East title and finished one game in the league standings behind co-champions LSU and Ole Miss en route to a 42-22 overall mark. Not only did the Gators sweep through their own Regional with a dramatic win over Bethune-Cookman and a pair of victories over Miami, they edged closer to reaching the College World Series in just the coaching staff's second year.

In his initial season at Florida, Bell worked with a team that had limited expectations that developed into a group that earned the second seed at the NCAA Tallahassee Regional and posted a third-place finish in the SEC. He had previously been an Associate Professional Scout in the Sunshine State for the Cincinnati Reds from 1993-2000. Bell also has experience scouting in Canada, the Dominican Republic and within the Cape Cod Baseball League each summer.

Bell was an assistant coach at Wellington High School in Palm Beach County, Fla., in 1999-2000 and helped the Wolverines to the Class 6A state championship. He was the head coach of the Palm Beach Lakes High School baseball team between 1990-98 and also coached Palm Beach Post 12 in American Legion from 1990-95. Bell earned Coach of the Year accolades from The Palm Beach Post and The Sun Sentinel in both 1994 and 1995 and collected the Palm Beach County Coaches' Association's Class 6A top coaching honor in 1994 and 1997.

During his coaching career, he has had 94 players chosen in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, including 10 first-round picks.

Bell earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of North Florida in 1989, and was a member of the Ospreys' baseball team during the 1988 and 1989 seasons while fellow Florida staff member Brad Weitzel was an assistant coach at UNF. In addition, he was a two-year letterwinner on the diamond at Palm Beach Community College, where he earned his associate of arts degree in 1987.

Bell, a native of West Palm Beach, Fla., is married to the former Karri Roy of Pontiac, Mich. The couple has two sons, Ryan and Kyle.

ASSISTANT COACH BRAD WEITZEL

BRAD WEITZEL

ASSISTANT COACH
10TH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Brad Weitzel is in his 10th season at Florida and has helped the Gators reach the NCAA Tournament all nine years that he has been a member of Kevin O'Sullivan's staff. During his tenure, the Orange and Blue have advanced to the NCAA College World Series five times in the past seven seasons, captured six NCAA Regionals, seized four Southeastern Conference Eastern Division crowns, brought home three SEC titles and won the 2011 and 2015 SEC Tournaments. While with the Gators, he has overseen the development of 16 All-Americans, 16 Freshman All-Americans and 34 All-SEC recipients.

Involved in all facets of the program, Weitzel's efforts have been critical to the team's resurgence over the past nine years to become a national powerhouse. His work with the Gator defense in 2015 resulted in a school-record fielding percentage of .984 that led the nation and was the second-best performance in NCAA history. Under his watch, UF has registered its top-seven fielding teams in school history (.984 in 2015, .982 in 2016, .978 in 2010, .977 in 2012, .975 in both 2013 and 2014 and .974 in 2011).

The 2016 season was another record breaking year for Florida, as the Gators turned in the best regular season (44-11) in program history and equaled the second-most wins in school history with a 52-16 final record and advanced to the College World Series for the fifth time in seven years. Right-handed pitcher Logan Shore was a unanimous First Team selection while first baseman Peter Alonso and righty Shaun Anderson also earned First Team honors. Sophomores Alex Faedo and JJ Schwarz also earned All-America honors. In addition, Jonathan India and Deacon Liput were named Freshman All-America selections. Following the year, the Gators had another stellar draft class enter the professional ranks with an amazing six players drafted in the first three rounds, including a pair of first round picks in A.J. Puk and Dane Dunning.

In 2015, the Gators used four straight victories in Hoover, Ala., to bring home the SEC Tourney crown and were rewarded with a national seed in the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in the past seven years, the only school in the country which can make that claim. After taking the NCAA Gainesville Regional, UF knocked off No. 10 Florida State twice in the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional to produce the program's ninth trip to the NCAA College World Series. The squad overpowered No. 8 Miami twice during the event, marking the first time in school history it had ousted both UM and FSU from the same postseason, and finished ranked third in the final rankings with an overall mark of 52-18.

Picked third in the East in the preseason coaches' poll in 2014, the Gators secured their third SEC Championship in five years, hosted a Regional and reached the finals of the SEC Tournament on its way to a 40-23 record.

In 2012, Florida boasted five All-Americans and a pair of first-round picks and advanced to Omaha for the third-straight time for the first time in school history after sweeping through the Gainesville Regionals and Super Regionals at McKethan Stadium.

During a memorable 2011 campaign, the Gators established a school record for wins, advanced to the NCAA College World Series Championship Finals, captured their second-straight SEC title and collected their first SEC Tournament trophy since 1991. UF finished with an overall mark of 53-19 and returned to Omaha, Neb., in consecutive seasons for the first time after claiming the Regionals and Super Regionals held on its own turf.

In 2010, the Gators earned their first SEC Championship in five years and advanced to the final College World Series held at historic Rosenblatt Stadium. Along the way to an impressive 47-17 performance and a top-10 national ranking, UF also seized its second-consecutive SEC Eastern Division crown, swept through the NCAA Gainesville Regional for the second year in a row and defeated Miami twice in the Gainesville Super Regional to reach the CWS.

In '09, the Gators claimed the SEC East, won the NCAA Gainesville Regional with three-straight wins, appeared in Super Regionals for the first time in four years and enjoyed their highest finish in the national rankings since 2005 with a consensus top-15 showing. Florida enjoyed an increase in batting average (.309) and fielding percentage (.966), as well as a drop in the staff's earned run average (4.27), for the second-consecutive year.

During Weitzel's first season at UF in 2008, the Gators returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the program was the runner-up at the 2005 NCAA College World Series. His efforts were instrumental in helping UF improve across the board in hitting, pitching and fielding on its way to a third-place showing in the SEC after preseason projections had the club expected to finish near the bottom of the league. In 30 league games, the Gators boasted an SEC-best .305 batting average and also registered the lowest team ERA (4.00).

Named the Florida Diamond Club Scout of the Year in 1998, 1999 and 2004, Weitzel became a member of the Gator staff in June 2007 after serving as the Florida Area Scout for the Minnesota Twins since 1991. Nineteen of his signees have reached the Major Leagues, including A.J. Pierzynski of the Atlanta Braves and Denard Span of the Washington Nationals. Weitzel was a coach for Minnesota's organization in the Instructional League between 1996 and 2001, coached with the Gulf Coast League Twins in 1996 and was the team's pitching coach in 2000.

An assistant coach at the University of North Florida from 1987-91, Weitzel served on the staff of the Ospreys' teams which placed third in both the 1989 and 1991 National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) World Series in Lewiston, Idaho.

Weitzel served as pitching coach for the Erie (Pa.) Sailors of the New York-Penn League in 1990 and guided the squad to a runner-up performance in the best-of-three championship series versus the Oneonta (N.Y.) Yankees. He was also an assistant at Palm Beach (Fla.) Community College from 1984-87. Weitzel coached current Gator assistant Craig Bell all four years of his collegiate career, in 1986-87 at Palm Beach and in 1988-89 at UNF, and coached O'Sullivan when the UF skipper was a member of the 1987 Jupiter (Fla.) American Legion team.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH LARS DAVIS

LARS DAVIS
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
THIRD SEASON AT FLORIDA

Lars Davis is in his third season as a volunteer assistant coach with the University of Florida baseball program. His efforts the past two seasons played a key role in the Gators advancing to back-to-back NCAA College World Series. In addition, Florida has compiled 104 wins in the past two seasons, the most in program history over a two-year span.

The 2016 season was a record breaking year for Florida, as the Gators turned in the best regular season (44-11) in program history and equaled the second-most wins in school history with a 52-16 final record and advanced to the College World Series for the fifth time in seven years. Five players earned All-America honors and the team produced eight MLB draft picks, including a pair of first rounders.

In 2015, the Gators swept through the Regionals and Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium and finished the season with a 52-18 record. In addition, the Orange and Blue claimed the Southeastern Conference Tournament by notching four straight victories in Hoover, Ala., and finished with an overall record of 52-18 and a No. 3 ranking in the final polls.

Davis arrived in Gainesville after completing the 2014 season with the Lehigh Valley IronPigs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Philadelphia Phillies. A third-round selection of the Colorado Rockies in the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft, the Grande Prairie, Alberta, native enjoyed an eight-year professional career with three organizations: the Rockies, Arizona Diamondbacks and the Phillies.

A two-year starting catcher at the University of Illinois in 2006-07, Davis was the second-highest drafted position player in school history and was an All-American during his junior campaign, when he was named the 2007 Big Ten Player of the Year. With a .400 batting average, he became the first Fighting Illini player to hit .400 in a season since 1996 and he put together a 19-game hitting streak. Davis paced the Big Ten that year in total bases (145), hits (90) and homers (13) and also led his squad in runs (55), slugging percentage (.644) and on-base percentage (.461).

His wife, Katie, is a member of the University Athletic Association as well, serving as the head athletic trainer for the two-time defending national champion Gator softball team.

FLORIDA BASEBALL SUPPORT STAFF

BUDDY MUNROE

DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS
SIXTH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Former Gator catcher Buddy Munroe is in his third season as the Director of Baseball Operations for the University of Florida baseball program following a season as the team's volunteer assistant coach. After being taken in the 22nd round of the 2009 Major League Baseball Draft by Minnesota with the 672nd choice, Munroe played two seasons with the Twins' minor league affiliates in Elizabethton (Tenn.) and Beloit (Wis.).

He manages UF's team travel arrangements by organizing flights, bus trips and hotel accommodations, oversees the budget and assists all members of the coaching staff in their day-to-day tasks and recruiting paperwork. Munroe's other responsibilities include serving as a game manager, coordinating maintenance within the $13-million-dollar facility, as well as hiring and managing the ushers for home games at McKethan Stadium. In addition, he is involved with everything related to the Gator baseball camps which are held several times per year.

Munroe's efforts in 2016 helped the squad make its 10th trip to Omaha, Neb., for the NCAA College World Series and tie a program record with 52 wins. UF reached Regionals every year that he was on the coaching staff as a volunteer assistant and as a student assistant.

In helping Florida reach the 2009 NCAA Gainesville Super Regional as a junior, Munroe played in 51 games, starting 40 games behind the plate and four as the designated hitter. He hit .270 with 26 RBI, 23 runs, 11 walks, seven doubles and five homers and was 3-for-4 on the basepaths. In SEC play, Munroe batted .275 with 14 runs, 14 RBI and five doubles. Eight of his 25 hits in league play went for extra bases, as he had five doubles and three round-trippers. He started two of the three games at catcher during the NCAA Gainesville Regional and was 2-for-5 in the finale against Miami (FL), with an RBI grounder in the five-run first inning and he later doubled and scored in the third stanza. Munroe delivered the game-winning hit, a walk-off single with a one-out and the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth, to down Florida State on St. Patrick's Day, when he was 3-for-5 with two RBI.

During his sophomore season in 2008, Munroe started at catcher 32 times in 38 games played and batted .237 with 17 RBI. He scored 15 runs, with four doubles, three homers and three sacrifice flies. Munroe started every game of the series at Ole Miss and was second on the squad with a .400 (4-for-10) effort. He set a season high with three RBI and belted his first homer in the finale, when he was 2-for-3 and scored twice to help UF secure its first series victory in Oxford since 1997. Munroe joined the Gators after seeing action in five games as a rookie at Clemson.

The Miami native was chosen all-state as a senior at Christopher Columbus High School under head coach Joe Weber. He was a member of the East Coast Professional Showcase and Florida Diamond Club in 2005, rated as the No. 195 prospect in the nation by Perfect Game and the No. 20 prospect in Florida by the organization. His squad captured the 6A state championship when he was a freshman.

Munroe earned his bachelor's degree in anthropology from Florida in 2013 and is currently pursuing his master's degree in sport management with a minor in entrepreneurship at UF. He married the former Nicole Critelli in October 2014.

PAUL CHANDLER

BASEBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COORDINATOR
EIGHTH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Paul Chandler is in his eighth season as the Strength and Conditioning Coordinator for the baseball program and in his sixth season working with the Gator softball program at the University of Florida. His responsibilities include designing and implementing year-round strength, speed and conditioning workouts for the Gators in the Griffin/Oakley Strength and Conditioning Center. Chandler guides each student-athlete through an individual training program designed to enhance strength, as well as explosive power, speed, agility, endurance, coordination, balance, flexibility and mental toughness.

In addition to working with UF's baseball program, which has made NCAA College World Series appearances in 2010, 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2016 under his direction and claimed Southeastern Conference titles in 2010, 2011 and 2014, Chandler picked up strength and conditioning duties working with UF's softball squad prior to the 2011 season. His work has been instrumental as the Gators have captured back-to-back national championships at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City in 2014 and 2015. In fact, UF softball has made the WCWS in three straight campaigns on his watch and also captured SEC Championships in 2013 and 2015. The 2015 softball recipient of the Honda Sports Award, Lauren Haeger became the third individual to win the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year, the WCWS Most Outstanding Player and the Honda Award in the same season.

Chandler's efforts have helped the Gators total 56 Major League Draft picks during his tenure, including a school-record 11 selections in 2011 and a total of six first-round picks: catcher Mike Zunino, third overall to the Seattle Mariners in 2012, left-hander Brian Johnson, 31st overall to the Boston Red Sox in 2012, right-hander Jonathon Crawford, 20th overall to the Detroit Tigers in 2013, shortstop Richie Martin, 20th overall to the Oakland A's in 2015, left-hander A.J. Puk to the Oakland A's and righty Dane Dunning to the Washington Nationals in 2016.

Zunino was Florida's first Dick Howser Trophy recipient, USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award winner and Johnny Bench Award winner in 2012 after being named the 2011 SEC Player of the Year, while Johnson was the Gators' first-ever John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year recipient. Five players garnered a total of 12 All-American honors in '12: Johnson, right-hander Austin Maddox, left-hander Steven Rodriguez, outfielder Preston Tucker and Zunino, while second baseman Casey Turgeon was a Freshman All-American from Baseball America and Perfect Game. Rodriguez was the first player from the 2012 MLB Draft to reach the Major Leagues with the Los Angeles Dodgers, while Mariners' starting catcher Zunino became the first position player from that Draft to be called up to the Majors.

Last season saw five players earn All-America honors. Right-handed pitcher Logan Shore was a unanimous First Team selection while first baseman Peter Alonso and righty Shaun Anderson also earned First Team honors. Sophomores Alex Faedo and JJ Schwarz also earned All-America honors. In addition, Jonathan India and Deacon Liput were named Freshman All-America selections. In addition, Shore was named the 2016 SEC Pitcher of the Year. Eight Gators were selected in the MLB Draft in June, including six in the first three rounds.

In 2015, Chandler's work resulted in a three All-Americans and three Freshman All-Americans from the SEC Tournament Champion and third-ranked Gators, who were one victory shy of the CWS Championship Finals. Catcher/designated hitter JJ Schwarz was tabbed as the National Freshman Hitter of the Year by the NCBWA and was Louisville Slugger's Co-Freshman of the Year on his way to consensus All-American and Freshman All-American acclaim. Left fielder Harrison Bader, a third-round pick by the St. Louis Cardinals, and third baseman Josh Tobias, a 10th-round choice of the Philadelphia Phillies, were also All-Americans for the first time before turning pro. Second baseman Dalton Guthrie and catcher/designated hitter Mike Rivera each achieved Freshman All-America status and the trio of Guthrie, Rivera and Schwarz was members of the SEC's All-Freshman team.

The SEC Champion Gators had a pair of All-Americans and two Freshman All-Americans in 2014. Taylor Gushue, the first-team All-SEC catcher, was a second-team All-American by Louisville Slugger and a fourth-round selection of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Right-hander Logan Shore, the National Freshman of the Year by Perfect Game and the first Gator pitcher to be named the SEC Freshman of the Year, earned third-team A-A honors from Louisville Slugger and was a unanimous Freshman All-American. A member of the SEC All-Freshman Team, designated hitter/first baseman Peter Alonso picked up Freshman All-America recognition from the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA).

Chandler previously assisted in the design, organization and execution of strength and conditioning program for the Gator football team. He was part of the staff for the 2006 squad that brought home the school's second national championship and seventh SEC title and has worked with a total of 11 Gators who were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Over the course of his career at Florida and West Virginia University, Chandler has overseen the development of 57 NFL Draft picks, 51 MLB Draft selections and 10 Major Leaguers.

He is officially certified through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist. Chandler is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa) and has passed the Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) certification examination.

The SCCC is the most comprehensive certification of its kind and tests the candidates' scientific knowledge, as well as their ability to apply this knowledge in a live working, practical environment. Those candidates preparing to take this certification examination must undergo an eight-to-nine month internship under the supervision of a CSCCa approved mentor. This mentor's responsibility is to guide the candidate and help him develop the skills necessary to become a successful strength and conditioning coach. In addition, Chandler has completed American Red Cross CPR training and earned his Automated External Defibrillator (AED) certification.

At Florida, Chandler manages and organizes student-athletes' data, organizes and administers weight room scheduling, purchasing and maintenance and assists in the planning of the strength and conditioning all-sports clinics and camps. He also helps with the mentoring of the strength and conditioning interns.

Prior to his return to Gainesville in January 2010, Chandler was a strength and conditioning coordinator at West Virginia for two years, working primarily with the Mountaineer football and baseball teams. Chandler went to Morgantown after a three-year stint at Florida as a strength and conditioning assistant coach for two years and as an intern for one. In that capacity, he worked with Gator football, throwers for the women's track team and oversaw the strength and conditioning program for members of UF's men's and women's swimming programs.

In addition, he served as a graduate assistant football and strength coach at Harding University between January and July 2005. During this time frame, Chandler assisted with the development of the Bison defensive line and led strength and conditioning workouts and pool workouts.

A 2003 graduate of Harding with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, he earned a master's degree in education with emphasis on kinesiology from Harding in 2005. Chandler and his wife, Veronica, live in the Gainesville area with their son, Jack, and daughter, Vivian.

JON MICHELINI

BASEBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER
FOURTH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Jon Michelini is in his fourth season as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Gators baseball program and is responsible for the prevention, care and rehabilitation of injuries. He also oversees the management of the baseball and softball athletic training facilities.

Michelini joined Florida's athletic training staff in January 2014 and helped the Gators to their third Southeastern Conference Championship in the past five years that season. Last spring, UF reached the Men's College World Series for the second straight season. While at LSU beginning in the fall of 2010, he worked with the Tigers' baseball program and had secondary responsibilities overseeing men's golf and cheerleading.

Michelini went to Baton Rouge after spending three years at Auburn as the certified trainer for baseball. Before his time on the Plains, Michelini spent three years at Stetson as an assistant athletic trainer, working primarily with men's soccer and baseball.

Prior to joining Stetson, Michelini served as a certified graduate assistant at South Alabama, working with track & field, cross country and baseball. He earned his master's degree in exercise science from South Alabama in 2004.

Michelini received his bachelor's of science in exercise and sport sciences from the University of Florida in 2001. In his first stint in Gainesville, he worked with the Gators' baseball team under head coach Andy Lopez.

Michelini also interned with HealthSouth, Buchholz High School, Hampton Oaks Sports Medicine Center and Gaither High School.

A native of Oradell, N.J., he is married to the former Heather Quicke of Perry, Fla. The couple has two children, a daughter, Lillian, and a son, Hamilton.

EDMUND BOYD

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT
11TH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Edmund Boyd is in his 11th season as UF's Assistant Director of Athletic Equipment and is Gator Baseball's Equipment Manager, a position he undertook in December of 2006. His main responsibilities revolve around ordering and accounting all of Florida's baseball equipment from Easton, New Era, Nike and Rawlings, while also directing actual game-day equipment efforts for the team. Boyd oversees a staff of seven student managers and runs a state-of-the art area within the baseball complex which houses everything needed by the student-athletes.

A native of Fresno and then Ridgecrest, Calif., Boyd earned his bachelor's degree in administrative management in 1989 from the University of Arkansas and received his master's in recreation management from UA in 1990. From 1991-99, he worked in the intramural sports program at the University of Florida and assisted in game-day operations for the Gator baseball and football programs between 1991 and 2006. Boyd was also the Regional Manager for DeConna Ice Cream for six years spanning 2000-06. When not handling the baseball team's equipment needs, Boyd enjoys spending time with his four children, Tommy, Katherine, Penelope and Alexandra.

ANN HUGHES

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF STUDENT SERVICES
36TH SEASON AT FLORIDA

Ann Hughes is in her 36th year at the University of Florida and is currently the Assistant Director of Student Services for the Office of Student Life. She coordinates housing and orientation for all of the Gator student-athletes, is responsible for international student-athlete services and assists with the graduation studies. In addition to working as the Academic Counselor for the Gator baseball team for the past 22 years, Hughes also acts in the same capacity for the men's and women's golf student-athletes. When she started working with UF in 1981 as an Academic Counselor, Hughes was one of the first full-time academic counselors for female student-athletes in the nation.

Prior to coming to Florida, Hughes worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln as a graduate intern in 1981. She worked directly with the football and basketball student-athletes in academic advising and coordinating official visits for their recruits. In 1979, Hughes worked in San Diego, Calif., with the Aztec Athletic Foundation of San Diego State University and the Holiday Bowl. She also worked with the National Football League's Seattle Seahawks in 1977 as a Public Relations Assistant.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Hughes graduated from the University of Washington in Seattle, where she received a bachelor's degree in history in 1978. She continued her education at Ohio University, earning her master's in education and sports administration in 1979. While at these institutions, Hughes she also worked in their athletic departments as a student and graduate assistant in the athletics director's office. She has served on the Executive Board of the National Association of Athletic Advisors for Athletics and was awarded their Distinguished Service Award in 1997.

"THE STANDARD FOR EXCELLENCE"

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 83-year his-tory of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Se-ries 31 of the last 32 years, including appearances by 15 teams in the last six years. Seven SEC teams were selected for NCAA Regional play with five advancing to NCAA Super Regionals.

The SEC has sent 55 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams mak-ing the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 14 times, Florida has now been 10 times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each. Auburn has been twice. SEC teams are 113-97 in Omaha since 1990, a 53.8 winning percentage.

SEC teams have won 10 of the last 27 national champi-onships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Vanderbilt tak-ing home the title in 2014 and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner up nine times in that span, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015.

The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2015, an SEC team played in each of the 16 games of the CWS. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 187 of the 393 games.

The SEC has played 55 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990. Only six times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006, 2007 and 2016 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

Total attendance for the 2016 SEC Tournament was 150,064, which broke the previous record by nearly 17,000. Two of the two-five highest attendance marks for a single session were set in 2016. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NAS-CAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Maga-zine named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The entire SEC Baseball Tournament was broadcast live on national television for the second consecutive year.

BASEBALL IN THE SEC

The SEC has sent 55 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 14 times, Florida has now been 10 times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each. A record seven SEC schools were selected as NCAA Regional host sites in 2016, and four teams - also an NCAA record - earned national seeds.

Mississippi State claimed the 2016 regular season SEC title, its first since 1989. The Bulldogs became the first team to go from last overall to outright SEC champion the next year.

Texas A&M won its first SEC Tournament title in the Aggies' fourth year in the SEC.

Total attendance for the 2016 SEC Tournament was 150,064, which broke the previous record by nearly 17,000. Two of the two-five highest attendance marks for a single session were set this year.

Combined home attendance for all 14 SEC teams passed the two million mark for the sixth consecutive season. The top-six national attendance leaders were all from the SEC (LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Arkansas, South Carolina and Texas A&M).

This season marked the first time that six SEC teams won 40 or more regular season games.

The SEC has had a team in the CWS final in eight of the last nine seasons.

2016 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- A record seven SEC schools were selected as NCAA Regional host sites in 2016, and four teams - also an NCAA record - earned national seeds.
- Total attendance for the 2016 SEC Tournament was 150,064, which broke the previous record by nearly 17,000. Two of the two-five highest attendance marks for a single session were set this year. Combined home attendance for all 14 SEC teams passed the two million mark for the sixth consecutive season, and the top-six national attendance leaders were all from the SEC (LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Arkansas, South Carolina and Texas A&M).
- This season marked the first time that six SEC teams won 40 or more regular season games.
- A total of 14 SEC student-athletes were selected on the first day of the Major League Baseball Draft. Seven were se-lected in the first round/lottery round A, including two in the top-10. Tennessee's Nick Senzel was selected second over-all by the Cincinnati Reds, while the Oakland Athletics took Florida's A.J. Puk with the sixth overall pick. The SEC's four first round picks represented three different schools. The SEC has now had a first-round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 109 total in the first round during that time.
- Among the top-two picks in each of the last two MLB Drafts, three have been from the SEC. Vanderbilt's Dansby Swanson and Arkansas' Andrew Benintendi were taken 1-2 in the 2015 draft.
- South Carolina pitcher Braden Webb was named the 2016 National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association National Pitcher of the Year. Florida's Logan Shore and Texas A&M's Boomer White were named District Players of the Year.
- Kentucky's Dustin Beggs was named to the 2016 Capital One Academic All-America Division I Baseball Team.
- Florida led all SEC schools with five players selected on Thursday night. This is the second time in the last five years that two Gators were chosen in the first round. There have been a total of 18 first round picks in program history.

2017 SEC & NCAA TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

SEC TOURNAMENT

MAY 23-28

HOOVER METROPOLITAN STADIUM (HOOVER, ALA.)

The 2017 SEC Baseball Tournament, which will be held in Hoover, Ala., at the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium for the 20th-consecutive year, is a 12-team event and will begin on Tuesday, May 23. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single-elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday. The tournament will return to single-elimination play on Saturday. The total number of games played will be 17.

The 12 teams are seeded 1-12, with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another bye later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions, plus 10 at-large bids seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.

Florida holds a 65-61 (.516) SEC Tournament record in a league-best 36 appearances. The Gators have claimed seven tournament crowns (1981, 1982, 1984, 1988, 1991, 2011 and 2015) and finished as the runner-up seven times (1977, 1979, 1992, 1996, 2000, 2014 and 2016).

NCAA TOURNAMENT

JUNE 2-5 – NCAA REGIONALS (16 SITES TBA)

JUNE 9-12 – NCAA SUPER REGIONALS (8 SITES TBA)

JUNE 17-28 – NCAA COLLEGE WORLD SERIES (OMAHA, NEB.)

The 2017 NCAA Tournament will feature a 64-team field for the 19th-straight year, as the tournament was increased from 48 to 64 participants in 1999. The teams selected for the tournament will be placed in 16 four-team NCAA Regional brackets at campus sites across the country June 2-5.

The brackets are set up similar to the NCAA Basketball Tournament, with the top eight teams in the country earning "National Seeds." The brackets will be used to determine Super Regional pairings, as well as the two brackets for the College World Series.

The 16 winners of the Regionals advance to the Super Regionals, where teams will be matched up for best-of-three series at eight sites, either June 9-11 or June 10-12. The eight winners of the Super Regionals advance to the College World Series June 17-28 at TD Ameritrade Park in Omaha, the seventh series that will take place in the facility.

The Gators have swept through their own NCAA Gainesville Regional in six of the past eight seasons and have reached the Super Regional round in six of the past eight seasons and eight times since 2004. UF reached the NCAA College World Series three-straight years for the first time in school history from 2010-12 after claiming Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium. The Gators have been to back-to-back CWS after winning the 2016 Gainesville Super Regional last season.

2017 GATOR BASEBALL

2016 SEASON IN REVIEW

2016 SEASON IN REVIEW

OMAHA, AGAIN!

Florida clinched its 10th trip to the NCAA College World Series with back-to-back shutout wins over Florida State in the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional at McKethan Stadium. The Gators nailed down their fifth CWS appearance in the past seven years.

After finishing second in the Southeastern Conference East Division, Florida played a marathon 14-inning game against No. 7 LSU to open the conference tournament. Despite losing the game 5-3, the Gators rallied to win three straight against Alabama (5-4), No. 3 Mississippi State (12-2) and LSU (1-0) to reach the SEC Tournament Final for the second year in a row. Florida's pitching depth ran out, however, and No. 2 Texas A&M won the final 12-5.

The Gators earned the No. 1 overall national seed, earning a national seed for the seventh time in nine seasons under O'Sullivan. In the NCAA Gainesville Regional, junior Logan Shore picked up a win over Bethune-Cookman (9-3) in the opening game after junior Peter Alonso blasted a pair of home runs to build a comfortable lead. In game two against Connecticut, freshman Jonathan India hit a solo home run in the eighth inning to propel UF to a 6-5 win over the Huskies. Sunday's Regional finale proved to be much smoother, as sophomore Alex Faedo took the mound and allowed just four hits and no runs in eight innings of work. Florida built a 10-0 lead before the Yellow Jackets scored a lone run in the ninth inning.

In the Super Regional, Florida matched up with in-state rival Florida State yet again. The Seminoles took the opening game with a 3-0 win behind starting pitcher Drew Carlton's two-hit shutout performance. The Gators rebounded in game two with Shore (8.0 IP, 2 H, 0 R) on the mound. Alonso and freshman Deacon Liput each had a pair of RBI in a 5-0 win. In Sunday's deciding game, a trio of junior pitchers -- A.J. Puk (3.2 IP, 1 H), Dane Dunning (4.1 IP, 4 H) and Shaun Anderson (1.0 IP, 0 H) -- combined for a shutout to lead the Gators back to the College World Series. A grand slam from sophomore JJ Schwarz in the fifth inning blew the game open as Florida won 7-0 to earn its berth in the CWS.

Florida's combination of pitching and defense -- UF led the SEC in both categories -- wasn't enough once they reached Omaha. In the opening game, Shore allowed just two runs but the Gators offense couldn't provide a lift as UF lost to eventual national champion Coastal Carolina 2-1. In the second game, Faedo's quality start (7.2 IP, 7 H, 2 R/ER) wasn't enough either as Florida lost 3-2 to Texas Tech. A two-run homer in the ninth from Alonso provided hope but it was too little too late.

RECORD BREAKING SEASON

Florida finished the regular season with 44 wins and set multiple records along the way. With a 9-3 win at Tennessee on May 8, the 2016 Gators became the fastest team in school history to reach 40 wins -- doing so in only 48 games. The previous best came in 1996. That year, the team reached 40 wins in 52 games. They finished the season with a 50-18 record and reached the College World Series.

With a 4-2 win over Vanderbilt on May 13, Florida won its 42nd game of the season -- setting a new school record for wins in the regular season (UF won 41 games 5 times: 1989, 1991, 1996, 1998, 2011). The record for overall wins in a season was set in 2011, when the team finished 53-19 and reached the CWS Finals.

STREAKING ALONG

Florida set a school record with 29 straight home wins before falling to Mississippi State on April 9. Florida's last home loss had been to Auburn on May 14, 2015, 4-1.

DEFENDING HOME TURF

Florida was 34-5 (.872) at McKethan Stadium in 2016, tying for the most at home under Kevin O'Sullivan. The 2011 Florida team went 34-7 (.829) at home.

The most victories at McKethan Stadium occurred in 1998, when the squad was 35-5 (.875).

2016 HIGHLIGHTS

- Florida finished with a 52-16 record, one win shy of the school record for wins in a season, set by the 2011 team that finished 53-19. The Gators .765 win percentage was best since 1967, when UF went 28-8 (.778).
- Florida's winning formula was great pitching and defense. UF led the SEC with a 2.91 team ERA and .982 fielding percentage.
- UF's 2.91 ERA ranked second in school history in the aluminum bat era (since 1974), behind only 1978 (2.79).
- The pitching staff combined for eight shutouts on the year, tied for third-most in a single season in UF history.
- The Gators shattered the school record for strikeouts in a season, totaling 671 in 613.1 innings pitched. The previous record was set in 1998 when the pitching staff had 592 strikeouts.
- The Gators led the nation strikeouts per nine innings (9.87 - school record) and ranked second in strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.04).
- Three Florida pitchers ranked near the top nationally in strikeout-to-walk ratio: junior RHP Dane Dunning (6th - 7.33), sophomore RHP Alex Faedo (16th - 6.33) and junior RHP Logan Shore (37th - 5.05).
- Junior LHP A.J. Puk and Faedo were among the best in the country at fanning batters, ranking fourth and 15th respectively in strikeouts per nine innings. Puk led the SEC with 12.34 strikeouts per nine innings and Faedo finished second with 11.44 strikeouts per nine.
- Shore became the second pitcher in school history to be named SEC Pitcher of the Year (Justin Hoyman, 2004). He finished with a 12-1 record and 2.31 ERA. Shore was also named All-SEC First Team for the second time (2014 as a freshman).
- Shore's 30 career wins rank second in UF history and his career ERA of 2.41 ranks second in the aluminum bat era.
- Junior RHP Shaun Anderson racked up 13 saves of the year, tying the school record and leading the SEC.
- As a team, the Gators had 19 saves on the year -- one shy of the school record set by the 2014 team.
- Junior RHP Kirby Snead was a workhorse out of the bullpen, making 41 appearances on the year -- most in the SEC and second most in the country. He totaled 101 appearances in his career, sixth most in school history.
- Junior 1B Peter Alonso led the team in all three triple crown categories, hitting .374 (4th in the SEC) with 14 home runs (t-1st in SEC) and 60 RBI (t-2nd in SEC). He led the league in slugging percentage (.659) and was second in on base percentage (.469).
- Alonso's batting average was the highest for a Gator since Matt LaPorta hit .402 in 2007.
- Sophomore SS Dalton Guthrie led the conference in at bats (279) and had a team-leading 85 hits on the year (.305 batting average).
- Junior CF Buddy Reed hit six triples on the year (5th-most in UF history), bringing his career total to 11 (4th-most in UF history). Reed also stole 24 bases, the most since Avery Barnes swiped 26 bases in 2008.

FACING THE IRON

GATORS FINISH PERFECT IN MIDWEEKS

Florida beat USF 11-4 on in its final midweek game, capping off a perfect 14-0 midweek schedule in 2016. That midweek schedule included three games against a ranked Florida State team and a matchup with No. 19 Florida Atlantic. It also included five games away from home, three on the road and two at neutral sites.

STRONG AGAINST SUNSHINE STATE RIVALS

With a win over USF, the Gators boosted their record to 19-2 against in-state competition. The Hurricanes, Seminoles and Owls were all ranked when UF faced them.

2016 SEASON IN REVIEW

IMPACT FRESHMEN

With the nation's top recruiting class according to Collegiate Baseball, head coach Kevin O'Sullivan regularly started four freshmen at the end of the season -- third baseman Jonathan India, second baseman Deacon Liput, right fielder Nelson Maldonado and left fielder Danny Reyes. India was a unanimous Freshman All-American. India and Liput were named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

Freshman right-hander Brady Singer was also among the freshman standouts. Singer appeared in 23 games and notched 38 strikeouts in 43.2 innings. Fellow freshman righty Jackson Kowar was having a nice season (3-0, 34.2 IP, 13 ER, 44 K, 10 BB) before a non-baseball related medical issue sidelined him in late April.

FLASHING THE LEATHER

The Gators finished with the third best defense in the country in 2016, with a .982 clip - committing 46 errors in 68 contests. UF was tops in the country in 2015 with a school-record .984 clip.

Florida was 28-8 playing error-free this year. In SEC play, UF committed 17 errors in 29 games.

ARSENAL OF ARMS

Florida's starting pitchers finished 35-8 with a 2.79 ERA, 412 K's in 358.2 innings and a .215 average against. UF's bullpen was 17-8 with 19 saves and had a 3.07 ERA, with 259 K in 254.2 IP and a .242 opponent batting average.

The Gators were one save shy of the school record (19), set by the 2014 squad. Closer Shaun Anderson tied the single season record with 13 saves on the year. In 2015, no pitcher totaled more than seven saves.

PITCHING STAFF'S FAVORITE LETTER...K

Florida shattered the school record with a nation's best 671 strikeouts in 613.1 innings. The previous record was 592 in 1998.

UF has reached double-digit K totals 38 times in 68 games. In comparison, the pitching corps had 20 games with 10 or more punchouts in 70 games in 2015.

Florida ranked No. 1 nationally in strikeouts per 9 innings with a school record 9.8 K/9 rate. UF was second in the nation in strikeout to walk ratio, notching 4.04 strikeouts per walk.

MILESTONE FOR O'SULLIVAN

Florida's 5-0 win over Miami on Feb. 26 was the 350th victory for Kevin O'Sullivan, becoming the quickest Gator baseball coach to reach that plateau. O'Sullivan hit the mark in his 523rd game.

LEADER OF THE PACK

Since Kevin O'Sullivan took over the Gators program prior to the 2008 season, he has led Florida to more league wins over the past nine seasons that any other school in the league.

GATORS TAKE TWO FROM COMMODORES

Florida took the series against No. 7 Vanderbilt in Gainesville May 13-15 with wins on Friday and Sunday. Logan Shore kicked things off with a complete game performance allowing two runs on six hits in a 4-2 win.

Dalton Guthrie and Deacon Liput led the offense over the weekend. Guthrie hit .333 (4-for-12) and Liput had three hits and four RBI. Nelson Maldonado had three RBI on the weekend.

SPLIT IN COLUMBIA

The matchup between No. 1 Florida and No. 5 South Carolina had plenty of drama in games one and two, but washed away in a rainout of game three. The Gators used a pair of solo home runs in the top of the ninth inning from freshman Jonathan India and sophomore Nick Horvath to stun the home crowd in a 5-4 UF victory.

On Saturday, the Gamecocks evened the series with a 2-1 win despite a strong starting effort from UF junior A.J. Puk (6.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R/ER, 10 K). Game three was rained out on Sunday.

TAKING BACK THE TOP

After losing a series at Kentucky, the Gators dropped from the top of the rankings, but after a win over No. 8 FSU and a sweep of new No. 1 Texas A&M, it didn't take long for Florida to reclaim their place at the top.

Peter Alonso hit .667 (8-for-12) with five RBI against the Aggies and freshman Jonathan India hit .556 (5-for-9) with five RBI as the offense exploded for 24 runs in three games.

BATTLING THE HURRICANES

In week two of the season, Florida headed south for a big non-conference matchup with No. 6 Miami. Logan Shore (complete game shutout) and Alex Faedo (12 strikeouts, 0 R in 6.1 IP) shined on the mound for the Gators.

At the plate, veterans Peter Alonso and JJ Schwarz each had five hits in the series and combined for eight RBI.

SWEEPING THE SEMINOLES

The Gators swept in-state rival Florida State in a trio of midweek games throughout the season. JJ Schwarz hit .462 (6-for-13) against the Noles and totaled four RBI in the three games. Peter Alonso and Dalton Guthrie each had four hits and two RBI against FSU over the three games. On the mound, freshman Jackson Kowar started two of the contests and pitches 11.0 innings and allowed just two runs. Kowar, Dane Dunning and Frank Rubio picked up the wins against FSU.

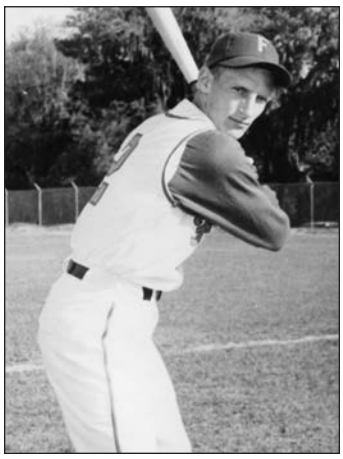
Bernie Parrish was the Gators' initial All-American, earning first-team accolades in 1958 from the ABCA.

Perry McGriff became Florida's first two-time pick, earning ABCA recognition in 1959 and 1960.



Boasting a .331 career average, third baseman Tom Moore achieved first-team All-America distinction in 1962 and 1963, joining Brad Wilkerson (1996-98), Matt LaPorta (2005, '07) and Mike Zunino (2011-12) as the UF players to make the first squad multiple times.

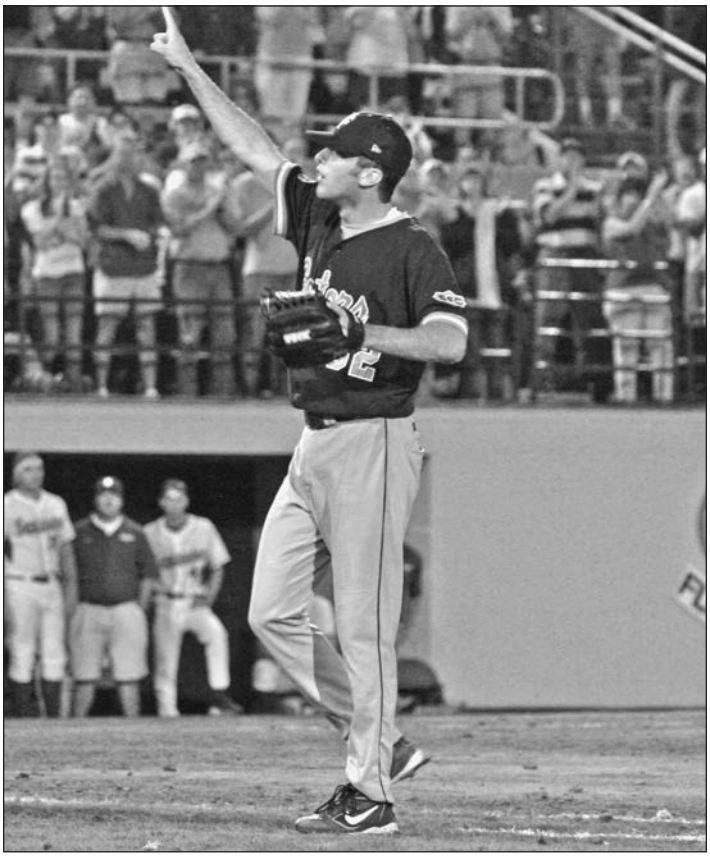
After hitting .500 with 10 RBI and three home runs when he was the Most Outstanding Player of the 1998 NCAA South Regional, Mark Ellis added four more hits and a game-tying blast versus eventual national champion Southern Cal at the CWS.

After deciding to remain in school for his senior season, Jeff Corsaletti responded with career highs in batting average (.358), RBI (53) and home runs (10) on his way to All-SEC, All-South Region and All-America recognition in 2005.



Right-hander Alan Horne punctuated his final appearance at McKethan Stadium with eight strikeouts over 8.1 innings to defeat Florida State in game two of the NCAA Super Regional to clinch a berth in the 2005 College World Series.

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES TEAMS

The 1988 Florida squad moved into the national spotlight by advancing to the College World Series for the first time in school history. A historic season for the Gator Baseball program included the 1988 SEC regular-season and tournament titles, the NCAA East Regional Crown, the first College World Series appearance in school history and a final national ranking of sixth by Collegiate Baseball.

"There's no way we're going to be satisfied with just the SEC Championship each year," stated UF coach Joe Arnold, who picked up his 500th career win and earned SEC Coach of the Year honors during the season.

The Gators, who were picked sixth in the SEC preseason coaches' poll, did not achieve success in the 1988 season without a few setbacks. Arnold's club lost its SEC Tourney opener to Georgia, 8-3, but then reeled off four-straight victories in three days, never allowing more than three runs in a game. The Gators battled back from the consolation bracket at the SEC Tournament to upend host Mississippi State twice to take home the championship. After dropping its NCAA Regional opener in Tallahassee, UF rebounded to post four wins in a row, knocking off host Florida State along the way, to seize the coveted NCAA East Regional trophy.

Florida established a school record with 48 wins against a schedule rated as the second-toughest in college baseball, including 31 games against nationally-ranked opponents. In fact, the Gators re-wrote the record books, as they totaled 25 victories against SEC competition, combining the regular-season and league tourney contests.

1991 proved to be a campaign to remember, as the Gators bounced all the way back from a disappointing 29-30 showing the previous year in which they failed to make the postseason. Florida notched a school-record 51 wins, appeared in the school's second College World Series and registered a program-best third-place national finish. Entering the year, head coach Joe Arnold had high hopes for an improved performance. Arnold knew it, the team knew it and the fans knew it. Few people, however, could have predicted just how good things would be for the Gators in 1991.

Boasting solid pitching and timely hitting, the Gators powered their way to the SEC Tournament title with a 4-0 mark. Florida capped a near-flawless four-day run in Baton Rouge, La., by defeating top-seeded LSU, 8-4, for its fifth championship at the event.

Hosting the NCAA East Regional, the Gators returned to the friendly confines of McKethan Stadium at Perry Field as the number one seed. The Orange and Blue did not disappoint the home crowd either, going 4-0 to snag the Regional hardware. Right-hander John Burke twirled UF's first no-hitter in 13 years and Brent Killen belted a home run in the bottom of the ninth to nip Furman in the first round, 2-0. In game two, Marc Valdes tossed a 3-0 shutout against Jacksonville to keep the Gators in the winner's bracket. Consecutive triumphs over N.C. State, including a 3-2, 10-inning decision in the final, punched the ticket to Omaha.

At the College World Series, Florida eliminated top-seeded Florida State en route to a third-place finish. When all was said and done, the 1991 squad was recognized as one of the greatest in UF baseball history. Finishing 51-21 overall, the Gators were 16-8 during the SEC regular season and registered an eight-game winning streak spanning the SEC and NCAA Regional Tournaments to leave their own imprint of success on the program.

The 1996 season was an eventful one for the Gators and was highlighted by the team's third appearance at the College World Series. Florida made the journey to Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium with a squad that returned just two players from its 25-man roster during the 1995 campaign. Head coach Andy Lopez's youthful contingent, sporting 19 freshmen among its 26 newcomers, entered the season out of the national polls. Unfazed, Florida set 33 offensive school records in 1996, produced 50 victories and claimed a share of the SEC regular-season title. Nicknamed the "Comeback Kids" after racking up 25 come-from-behind victories, the club overcame four-run deficits six times during the year.

The Gators won the SEC Eastern Division for the first time since 1992, split the SEC regular-season crown with Alabama and LSU and were the runner-up at the SEC Tournament. Florida made its 15th NCAA Tournament appearance in school history and hosted a Regional for the fourth time since 1989. UF cruised to a 7-0 shutout against Bucknell in its opener before turning back N.C. State, 12-9, in game two. The Gators stunned South Florida on Chuck Hazzard's solo shot in the 13th inning to advance to the regional championship game. Nursing a tenuous 3-2 lead, Florida sealed its spot in Omaha by exploding for nine runs in the bottom of the eighth inning during a 12-2 win over Massachusetts.

In its first action at the 1996 College World Series, Florida was staring defeat in the face before outfielder Brad Wilkerson cranked a grand slam to defeat Florida State, 5-2. Relegated to the consolation bracket following a 9-4 setback to LSU, designated hitter Chuck Hazzard blasted a pair of home runs and the Gators used the strong pitching of Tommy Bond to defeat Florida State, 6-3, for the second time in four days and oust the Seminoles. Next up for Lopez's charges was a rematch with LSU, a team that the Gators handled four-straight times during the regular season. However, it was the Bayou Bengals who would take a 2-1 decision on their way to the national championship.

Florida captured the 1998 Southeastern Conference regular-season title and advanced to the College World Series for the second time in three years while producing its best offensive season in school history. The Gators established three new standards and seven players hit 10 or more home runs during the season. UF's 41 regular-season wins tied a school record accomplished three previous times (1981, 1991 and 1996) and its 21 SEC victories matched the 1985 squad for most league wins. In addition, Florida won the outright conference title for the first time since 1988.

Florida entered its own NCAA Regional as the top seed and was the prohibitive favorite to advance from the six-team regional into the College World Series. UF entered the event with a 31-4 home record and had strung together a school-record 18 consecutive wins at McKethan Stadium earlier in the season.

The Gators took advantage of a boisterous home crowd and survived a scare from sixth-seeded Monmouth in the opening tilt to grab a 12-8 win on Mark Ellis' three-run double in the eighth. In its second outing, Florida tallied nine runs during the first two innings to overwhelm Richmond, 15-3. The day wasn't over for the Gators, as they were set to face Wake Forest, the only other undefeated team in the Regional, later in the day. Faced with a thin pitching staff, UF coach Andy Lopez used closer Josh Fogg for six-plus innings. The All-American entered the contest with two outs in the first and kept his squad on track for a 12-9 victory over the Demon Deacons.

With a CWS berth on the line, Florida advanced to Omaha with a 7-6 come-from-behind win over Illinois. The Gators rallied three times, from deficits of 2-0 (6th), 5-4 (8th) and 6-5 (11th), in front of a McKethan Stadium record crowd of 5,150 fans. Derek Nicholson's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the 11th triggered a massive celebration and sent the crowd into a state of delirium.

Florida entered the College World Series as the top seed for the first time in school history, bettering the previous high seed of No. 2 in 1996. SEC rival Mississippi State pulled off a 14-13 upset in the first game, sending the Gators into the elimination round. Although it held a 4-3 record in CWS do-or-die games and had taken its last three such affairs, UF saw its season end with a 12-10 loss to Southern California in 12 innings.

With his club returning 18 letterwinners, including six position starters and eight pitchers, from a team that had earned the program's first NCAA Super Regional appearance, there was a heightened sense of optimism for fourth-year head coach Pat McMahon heading into the 2005 campaign. Voted third in the Eastern Division preseason poll by the SEC coaches and ranked 22nd according to Collegiate Baseball, the Gators surprised the prognosticators by earning their first league crown and later clinching a trip to Omaha for the first time since 1998.

Battling Tennessee down to the final weekend of the regular season, the Gators used a three-game sweep at Vanderbilt to nail down both the Eastern Division and overall SEC hardware, a double it had not turned in seven years. Seeded first at the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala., UF rallied for a pair of wins over Arkansas (9-8) and Ole Miss (10-7) to remain in the winner's bracket. However, the Rebels came out ahead in the next two matchups to deny McMahon's team a chance at its first appearance in the final since 2000.

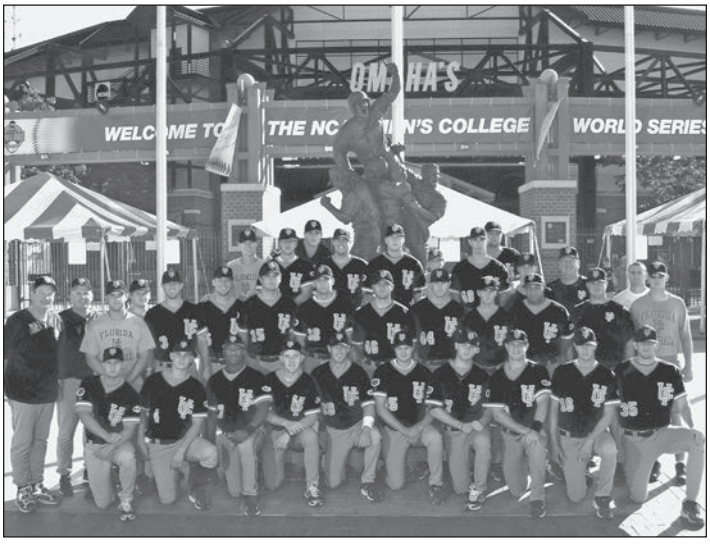
Rewarded with the seventh seed in the 64-team NCAA Tournament field, Florida hosted a Regional in Gainesville for the first time since 2002 and the seventh time in the program's existence. The Gators did not disappoint the home crowd, dispatching Stetson (8-3), North Carolina (5-2) and Notre Dame (23-3). Facing in-state rival Florida State in the Super Regional with a berth to the College World Series on the line, fan interest reached a fever pitch and resulted in the two biggest postseason crowds at McKethan Stadium.

Behind a complete-game gem from right-hander Tommy Boss, as well as consecutive home runs in the fifth inning by Brian Jeroloman, Brandon McArthur and Brian Leclerc, the Gators cruised to an 8-1 win to take the opener. In front of a McKethan Stadium record crowd of 5,698 fans the next night, UF used a four-run first inning and 8.1 innings from Alan Horne to defeat the Seminoles, 8-5.

Making their first journey to Johnny Rosenblatt Stadium since '98, Florida held off SEC rival Tennessee to begin the CWS, 6-4. Facing home state favorite Nebraska before a crowd of 26,813 fans, the second-highest attendance in the event's history, the Gators jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning on a two-run homer by Adam Davis and posted a 7-4 win.

Needing one win to advance to the best-of-three championship series, the Gators were stymied by Arizona State, 6-1. However, Florida overcame a 3-0 deficit to the Sun Devils the next day with six unanswered runs to set up a date with Texas. A two-run shot by Leclerc in the fourth frame narrowed the gap to 3-2 and Adam Davis connected on a three-run bomb the next inning to put UF on top to stay. Boss continued his excellence in the month of June with 5.2 innings of scoreless ball after Horne suffered an injury, raising his postseason mark to 3-0.

Becoming the first SEC program to participate in the CWS Championship Series, Florida's dreams of a national title were dashed by Texas, 4-2 and 6-2. The Longhorns were unbeaten in Omaha on the way to their sixth NCAA title and second in the last four seasons.



Shown outside of Rosenblatt Stadium before the 2005 NCAA College World Series, the Gators emerged victorious from their bracket and advanced to the final round against Texas.

The Gators spent a memorable two weeks in Omaha that they will never forget.

On the heels of its first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title and NCAA Super Regional appearance in four years and a preseason ranking of seventh by Baseball America, Florida entered the 2010 campaign with heady expectations. Under third-year head coach Kevin O'Sullivan, the Gators delivered a memorable season that culminated with the program's sixth appearance at the College World Series in the final year of famed Rosenblatt Stadium.

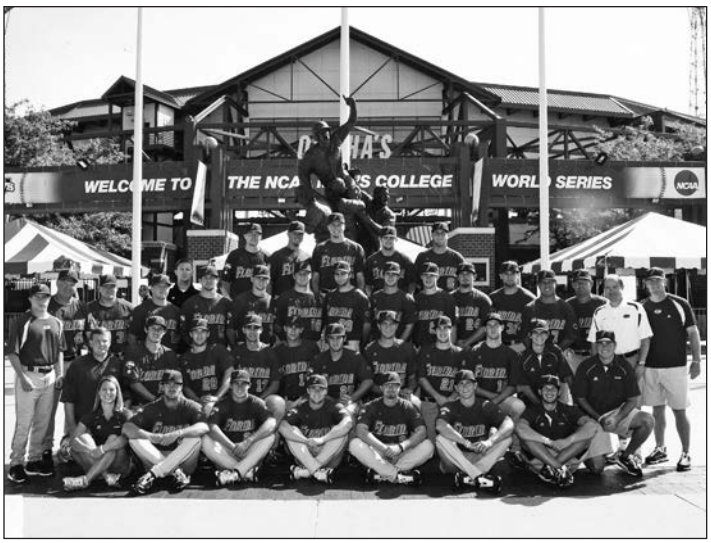
The Orange and Blue posted a 47-17 overall mark and brought home its 11th SEC crown, first since 2005, by turning in a school-best mark of 22-8 in league play. Guided by SEC Coach of the Year O'Sullivan, the Gators captured nine of their 10 league series, including the final eight in a row. Traveling to South Carolina on the last weekend of the regular season with the conference title hanging in the balance, Florida claimed the first two games over the Gamecocks, 3-2 and 5-2, to secure the championship.

After falling to LSU in the opening round of the SEC Tournament, the top-seeded Gators rebounded to eliminate Arkansas (5-4) and Vanderbilt (5-2) to reach the semifinals of the event for the first time in five years. Needing to defeat Alabama twice in order to advance to the title game, UF was ousted by a 5-2 score.

Soon after, Florida was awarded the third national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Gators swept the Gainesville Regional with victories over Bethune-Cookman (7-3), Oregon State (10-2) and Florida Atlantic (15-0) for their eighth Regional crown and second in a row. Left-hander/designated hitter Brian Johnson was named the event's Most Outstanding Player after firing seven scoreless innings in the Regional final against Florida Atlantic and hitting .625, while Tyler Thompson became the eighth player in school history to homer three times in a contest, first in the postseason.

In the opener of the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional, Alex Panteliodis went the distance for his first career complete game and established a personal best with 12 strikeouts as UF defeated Miami (Fla.), 7-2. The southpaw retired the final 14 Hurricane hitters of the contest and yielded three hits to register UF's first complete game since Stephen Locke accomplished the feat against Alabama on May 10, 2008.

The next night in front of a record crowd of 5,783 fans at McKethan Stadium, Austin Maddox delivered a two-out RBI double in the top of the 10th inning to drive in Nolan Fontana with the winning run as Florida upended Miami (Fla.), 4-3, to punch its sixth ticket to Omaha. The Gators dropped their opener at the College World Series to eventual runner-up UCLA and then succumbed to Florida State to see its season come to an end.



Florida earned the program's sixth trip to the NCAA College World Series in the final year of Rosenblatt Stadium in 2010. After winning the Southeastern Conference title, the Gators captured both the NCAA Gainesville Regional and Super Regional for the first time in five years en route to a consensus top-eight final ranking in the collegiate baseball polls.

Entering the season ranked No. 1 by Baseball America, Florida embraced the challenge of having a bull's-eye on its back as it aimed to make consecutive trips to the NCAA College World Series for the first time in school history. Head coach Kevin O'Sullivan directed the Gators to a spectacular performance that featured a runner-up finish in Omaha, a school-record 53 victories, a share of the SEC overall and Eastern Division championships, their first SEC Tournament crown since 1991, as well as both the Gainesville Regional and Super Regional titles. The fourth-year skipper became the first individual from UF to earn College Coach of the Year honors from Baseball America.

The Gators finished 53-19 overall and their 22-8 performance in league play matched South Carolina and Vanderbilt for the top spot in the standings, with all three East rivals advancing to the CWS. Florida captured its SEC-best 21st division championship and its 12th league championship rates third behind LSU (14) and Alabama (13). The Gators became the East winner for the third year in a row, matching their feat from 1996-98. O'Sullivan's squad claimed eight of its 10 SEC series and the team's 22 victories in league play matched the school record set last season.

At the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala., Florida used a seventh-inning grand slam from Brian Johnson to turn a 5-2 deficit into a 7-5 victory over Mississippi State in the opening round and then relied on eight scoreless innings by Hudson Randall and four hits apiece from Daniel Pigott and Bryson Smith to blank Alabama, 6-0. After falling to Georgia, 4-3, the Gators secured their first appearance in the title game since 2000 when Nolan Fontana drove in Vickash Ramjit with the winning run in the ninth inning to post a 3-2 triumph in the rematch with the Bulldogs. Making his first start of the season against a league foe, Alex Panteliodis tossed 5.1 scoreless innings and the event's MVP Pigott went 2-for-3 with an RBI and a run scored as Florida collected its sixth SEC Tourney title, and ended a 20-year drought, with a 5-0 shutout of Vanderbilt.

The second national seed in the NCAA Tourney, the Gators cruised to their third-straight Gainesville Regional title by knocking off Manhattan (17-3) and then downing Miami (Fla.) by scores of 5-4 and 11-4 to oust the Hurricanes from the postseason for the third year in a row. Also picked in 2009, Preston Tucker became the first Gator to be chosen as Regional Most Outstanding Player twice in his career after hitting .500 (7-for-14), with 11 RBI, six runs, three homers and three doubles, while Fontana delivered a walk-off single in the bottom of ninth during the initial meeting with UM.

Facing league rival Mississippi State in what would become a classic Super Regional, the hosts provided Randall with 10 runs of support in the first five innings en route to an 11-1 victory in game one. The Bulldogs evened the series the next afternoon with a dramatic two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth for a 4-3 triumph, setting the stage for a winner-take-all showdown to determine which club would be heading to Omaha. With UF trailing 6-4 in the seventh, Tucker clubbed a go-ahead, three-run blast to straightaway center field, one of the club's season-high five homers. Tommy Toledo worked 2.1 innings and set down MSU in order in the ninth to preserve the 8-6 win and secure the Orange and Blue's seventh trip to the "Promised Land."

In its CWS opener at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, Florida overcame a 3-0 deficit against Texas All-American Taylor Jungmann to notch an 8-4 victory over the Longhorns. Randall yielded one earned run over 6.2 innings, Smith reached base in all five of his plate appearances and Cody Dent put UF ahead to stay with a two-out RBI double, the first two-bagger of his career. Holding a 3-1 advantage over Vanderbilt in the winner's bracket contest courtesy of a three-run homer by Tucker, the game was suspended due to tornado sirens, heavy winds and torrential rains. Steven Rodriguez, who had entered the game prior to the delay, returned to the mound in the morning and wound up retiring 13 of the 14 batters he faced, with a career-high seven strikeouts over 4.1 scoreless and hitless innings in the 3-1 win. Meeting the Commodores for the sixth time on the campaign, the Gators snapped a 4-4 tie with an RBI single by Tucker in the bottom of the eighth and Austin Maddox provided 1.2 innings of shutout relief as Florida advanced to the CWS Championship Finals for the second time with a 6-4 victory.

Battling tooth and nail with defending national champion South Carolina, the Gators found themselves on the short end of a 2-1 margin in 11 innings in the opener. Randall had carried a shutout into the eighth inning before the Gamecocks tied the game on a two-out single. Despite a 3-for-3 performance and team-leading 19th homer by SEC Player of the Year Mike Zunino, USC claimed the title with a 5-2 victory in front of a record crowd of 26,721 fans.

Reaching the NCAA College World Series in consecutive seasons for the first time, the Gators made the CWS Championship Finals for the second time in the inaugural event held at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

2012

The nation's consensus top-ranked team in the various preseason polls, head coach Kevin O'Sullivan's fifth Gator squad blazed out of the gates with a 23-2 record and established a program-best winning streak of 18 games from Feb. 21-March 22 on its way to an unprecedented third-straight trip to the NCAA College World Series by the program.

Rated No. 1 for the first seven weeks of the regular season, as well as atop the final three polls prior to the NCAA College World Series, Florida finished 47-20 overall and tied for third in the SEC with an 18-12 mark after the league champion was not decided until the final day of action.

The Gators earned the top seed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history and swept through the Gainesville Regional for the fourth year in a row. In its Regional opener, UF blanked fourth-seeded Bethune-Cookman, 4-0, thanks to a no-hitter by Jonathon Crawford and a four-RBI effort by Regional Most Outstanding Player Casey Turgeon. The complete-game no-hitter was the first by a Gator since John Burke in 1991 and just the seventh in NCAA Tournament history. The Orange and Blue downed second-seeded Georgia Tech, 6-2, in a winner's bracket matchup on Saturday and then defeated the Yellow Jackets again on Sunday, 15-3, to lock up their 10th Regional title. Preston Tucker became the first UF player to be voted onto the Regional All-Tournament Team all four seasons of his career and was joined on the list by Crawford, Nolan Fontana, Turgeon and Mike Zunino.

Florida clinched its eighth trip to the CWS with a dramatic 9-8 win in 10 innings over NC State to sweep the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional at McKethan Stadium. With the game tied at 7-7 and UF the visiting team, Daniel Pigott clubbed a leadoff homer just over the right-field wall to give the Gators an 8-7 lead. After Turgeon collected his third hit of the contest with a base-hit into right field and was sacrificed to second by Justin Shafer, Josh Tobias sliced a two-out RBI single into right field to give the Gators a 9-7 advantage. The Wolfpack countered with a sacrifice fly in the bottom of the frame and Keenan Kish caught NCSU's Chris Diaz looking on strikes to record his first career save and secure UF's trip to Omaha. Hudson Randall had thrown seven shutout innings and Zunino drove in three runs and blasted a two-run homer as the Gators posted a 7-1 win in game one.

In a rematch of the 2011 CWS Championship Finals, the Gators dropped a 7-3 decision to South Carolina to begin action at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha and then saw their ninth-inning rally fall short against Kent State, 5-4. The top-10 finish in the final rankings marked the first time in school history that had occurred in three-straight seasons and the Gators' mark of 147-56 (.724) in that span is the best run in the program's existence.

Florida advanced to the NCAA College World Series for the third year in a row and the Orange and Blue posted a school-best record of 147-56 (.724) during that span.

Kevin O'Sullivan's eighth year at Florida saw the Orange and Blue return to Omaha for the fourth time in his tenure and the squad reached the 50-win plateau for the fourth time in school history, twice in the past five seasons. The Gators finished 52-18 overall, one win shy of the College World Series Championship Finals, eliminated Sunshine State rivals Florida State and Miami from the postseason in the same campaign for the first time and used an impressive run to the SEC Tournament title as a springboard to sweeping the Regional and Super Regionals held at McKethan Stadium. UF was fourth in a jam-packed SEC race that came down to the final weekend and was the runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 19-11 league mark.

After falling to fifth-seeded Arkansas, 7-6, in Hoover, Ala., the fourth-seeded Gators knocked off ninth-seeded Auburn (11-2), the Razorbacks in the rematch (10-0 in seven innings), top-seeded LSU (2-1) and second-seeded Vanderbilt (7-3) to secure the seventh SEC Tourney crown in school history, first since 2011. JJ Schwarz, who went 2-for-5 with a run scored versus the Commodores, was chosen as the Most Valuable Player of the SEC Tourney after batting .526 (10-for-19) over the five games, with six RBI, five runs and three doubles. Other members of the All-Tourney Team included first baseman Peter Alonso, right-hander Taylor Lewis, left-hander A.J. Puk and outfielder Buddy Reed.

The Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, becoming one of the top-eight national seeds for the sixth time in seven years, and swept through the Gainesville Regional. In its NCAA opener, Florida blanked fourth-seeded Florida A&M, 19-0, as right-handers Logan Shore, Frank Rubio and Shaun Anderson combined on a three-hit shutout and Regional Most Outstanding Player Schwarz went 4-for-5 and drove in five runs. The Orange and Blue handled third-seeded USF, 8-2, in a winner's bracket matchup on Saturday night behind seven shutout innings from Puk and two-run homers by Harrison Bader and Reed. UF then edged second-seeded Florida Atlantic on Sunday, 2-1, when Schwarz delivered the go-ahead RBI single in the sixth inning and right-hander Alex Faedo allowed one run over a career-high six innings. Bader, Puk, Reed and Jeremy Vasquez joined Schwarz on the All-Regional Team.

Hosting Florida State in a Super Regional for the first time since 2005, the Gators overpowered the Seminoles by scores of 13-5 and 11-4 to secure their ninth appearance at the NCAA College World Series. The clubs set a two-game series attendance record at McKethan Stadium by drawing 11,481 fans. In the opener, Shore tossed 5.2 shutout innings and Mike Rivera and Josh Tobias drove in three runs apiece to lead an 11-hit outburst. UF burst out of the gates with four runs in the opening frame and had ballooned its margin to 13-0 in the seventh inning. Behind three RBI apiece from Bader and Schwarz, and a total of four homers, O'Sullivan's crew secured its journey to Omaha with a seven-run triumph. Schwarz belted a pair of homers to establish the program's single-season mark by a freshman and was 5-for-7 (.714) with six runs and five RBI in the two games. Bobby Poyner twirled five shutout innings in his final home appearance to collect the victory.

In its opener at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, the Gators erupted for 11 runs in the fourth inning and tallied 14 hits in a 15-3 victory over Miami. Alonso and Tobias each contributed three RBI, while Shore collected the win. After a 1-0 defeat to Virginia, Florida rebounded to oust the Hurricanes, 10-2, behind a barrage of four homers and a seven-strikeout performance by righty Alex Faedo. UF forced a rematch with the Cavaliers by scoring four runs in the third and five in the fifth on the way to a 10-5 victory. The Gators' season ended with a 5-4 setback to UVa, which captured its first national title by defeating Vanderbilt.

The Gators reached the College World Series for the fourth time in six years after cruising through the Regional and Super Regional rounds at McKethan Stadium.

2016

Florida had a record-breaking regular season and advanced to the College World Series for the 10th time in program history and the fifth time under Kevin O'Sullivan. The Gators finished with a 52-16 record, one win shy of the school record. UF's .765 win percentage was the highest since 1967 when the team went 28-8 (.778). In the regular season, the Gators reached uncharted waters -- recording a record 44 wins and reaching 40 wins faster than any team in school history (just 48 games). Florida finished unbeaten in midweek contests (14-0) and was 19-2 against in-state competition, including a 2-1 series win at No. 6 Miami and a 5-1 mark against Florida State. Florida set a school record with 29 straight home wins and finished 34-5 in McKethan Stadium.

After finishing second in the Southeastern Conference East Division, Florida played a marathon 14-inning game against No. 7 LSU to open the conference tournament. Despite losing the game 5-3, the Gators rallied to win three straight against Alabama (5-4), No. 3 Mississippi State (12-2) and LSU (1-0) to reach the SEC Tournament Final for the second year in a row. Florida's pitching depth ran out, however, and No. 2 Texas A&M won the final 12-5.

The Gators earned the No. 1 overall national seed, earning a national seed for the seventh time in nine seasons under O'Sullivan. In the NCAA Gainesville Regional, junior Logan Shore picked up a win over Bethune-Cookman (9-3) in the opening game after junior Peter Alonso blasted a pair of home runs to build a comfortable lead. In game two against Connecticut, freshman Jonathan India hit a solo home run in the eighth inning to propel UF to a 6-5 win over the Huskies. Sunday's Regional finale proved to be much smoother, as sophomore Alex Faedo took the mound and allowed just four hits and no runs in eight innings of work. Florida built a 10-0 lead before the Yellow Jackets scored a lone run in the ninth inning.

In the Super Regional, Florida matched up with in-state rival Florida State yet again. The Seminoles took the opening game with a 3-0 win behind starting pitcher Drew Carlton's two-hit shutout performance. The Gators rebounded in game two with Shore (8.0 IP, 2 H, 0 R) on the mound. Alonso and freshman Deacon Liput each had a pair of RBI in a 5-0 win. In Sunday's deciding game, a trio of junior pitchers -- A.J. Puk (3.2 IP, 1 H), Dane Dunning (4.1 IP, 4 H) and Shaun Anderson (1.0 IP, 0 H) -- combined for a shutout to lead the Gators back to the College World Series. A grand slam from sophomore JJ Schwarz in the fifth inning blew the game open as Florida won 7-0 to earn its berth in the CWS.

Florida's combination of pitching and defense -- UF led the SEC in both categories -- wasn't enough once they reached Omaha. In the opening game, Shore allowed just two runs but the Gators offense couldn't provide a lift as UF lost to eventual national champion Coastal Carolina 2-1. In the second game, Faedo's quality start (7.2 IP, 7 H, 2 R/ER) wasn't enough either as Florida lost 3-2 to Texas Tech. A two-run homer in the ninth from Alonso provided hope but it was too little too late.

Brian Duva paced the Orange and Blue's offense in at bats, runs, stolen bases and walks in both 1993 and 1994 and was picked by the Cleveland Indians following his senior campaign.

A fixture on the school's all-time statistical chart for both batting and pitching, Brad Wilkerson was a first-round choice of the Montreal Expos in 1998.

Major League Baseball originally held January and June drafts as well as a late-summer selection of American Legion players (dropped after 1966). The January (eliminated in 1987) and June processes involved a secondary phase for previously drafted but unsigned players. That also was shelved in 1987. Teams unable to sign first-rounders were allotted a supplemental first-round pick the following June.

*Adrian Zabala, Kelly Prior (twice), Glen Pickren, Thomas Seybold, Jim Watkins, Bruce Crabbe, Scott Ruskin (twice), Jose Fernandez, Todd McCray, John Burke, Dave Majeski, Todd Johannes, Keith Ramsey, Ben Harrison, C.J. Smith, Jeff Corsaletti, Matt LaPorta, Avery Barnes, Kevin Chapman, Matt den Dekker, Tommy Toledo, Matt Campbell, Preston Tucker, Greg Larson and Karsten Whitson were drafted multiple times because they did not originally sign.

TOTALS: 187 individuals drafted; 18 First-Round Draft Choices; 23 Free Agents signed

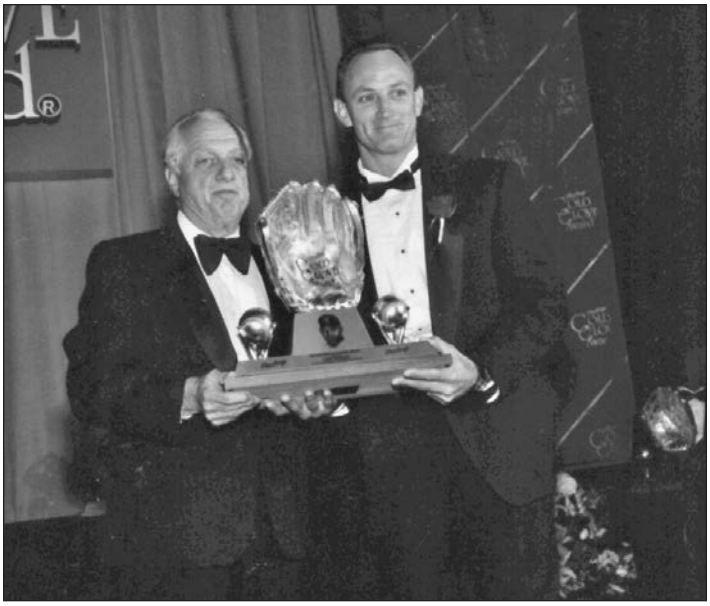
- Nine former Gators saw action in the Majors in 2016: Kevin Chapman (Astros), Matt den Dekker (Nationals), Anthony DeSclafani (Reds), Cole Figueroa (Pirates), Darren O'Day (Orioles), Ryan Raburn (Rockies), David Ross (Cubs), Preston Tucker (Astros) and Mike Zunino (Mariners).
- The Gators have had 69 players chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft over the past nine years, including a school-record 11 in 2011. Before Kevin O'Sullivan's arrival, the program's high number of picks was eight in both 1999 & 2002. Florida's total of 56 Draft picks since 2010 leads the nation.
- Eight players from Florida's 2010 SEC Championship team that advanced to the NCAA College World Series have reached the Major Leagues: Chapman (Astros), den Dekker (Mets/Nationals), DeSclafani (Marlins/Reds), Johnson (Red Sox), Nick Maronde (Angels), Rodriguez (Dodgers), Tucker (Astros) and Zunino (Mariners).
- Rodriguez became the first player from the 2012 MLB Draft to reach the Major Leagues, while Zunino became the first position player from that Draft class to make the Majors.
- Two first-round picks in 2012 (C Mike Zunino at No. 3 and LHP Brian Johnson at No. 31) matched the most by the Gators since 1983; Florida had another pair of first-round picks in 2016 (LHP A.J. Puk at No. 6 and RHP Dane Dunning at No. 29)
- Former UF catcher David Ross (1998) hit a home run in Game 7 of the 2016 World Series, winning his second World Series ring inwhile helping the Chicago Cubs to their first title since 1908. He also won a ring with the Boston Red Sox in 2013. Ross is among seven former Gator players who have earned World Series rings – David Eckstein (2002, 2006), Witt "Lefty" Guise (1940), Steve Lombardozzi (1987), Randy O'Neal (1984), Lance Richbourg (1924), Al Rosen (1948).
- Mike Zunino became the highest MLB Draft pick in school history when he was taken No. 3 overall by the Seattle Mariners in 2012 and the Gators have had 16 first-round selections in school history.

GATORS IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES



A first-round pick of the San Francisco Giants in 1983, Robby Thompson became the first Florida player to win a Gold Glove Award when he was recognized for his defensive play following the 1993 season.

school record*

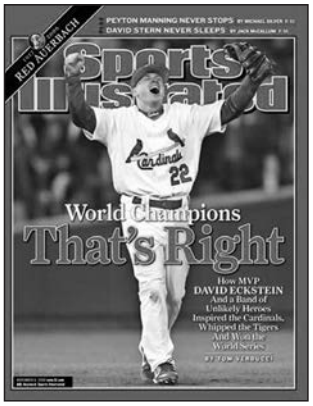
• Former Gator Josh Fogg started Game Three of the 2007 World Series for the Colorado Rockies against Boston but was on the hook for the defeat. The Red Sox went on to complete a four-game sweep the following night at Coors Field in Denver, 4-3, to capture their second championship in four years. Fogg finished 2-1 in the playoffs after posting wins over Philadelphia in the National League Division Series and Arizona in the N.L. Championship Series.



• Former Florida All-American David Eckstein appeared on the cover of the Nov. 6, 2006 issue of Sports Illustrated. A four-year standout for the Gators from 1994-97, he was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2006 World Series after helping the St. Louis Cardinals to a five-game triumph over the Detroit Tigers.

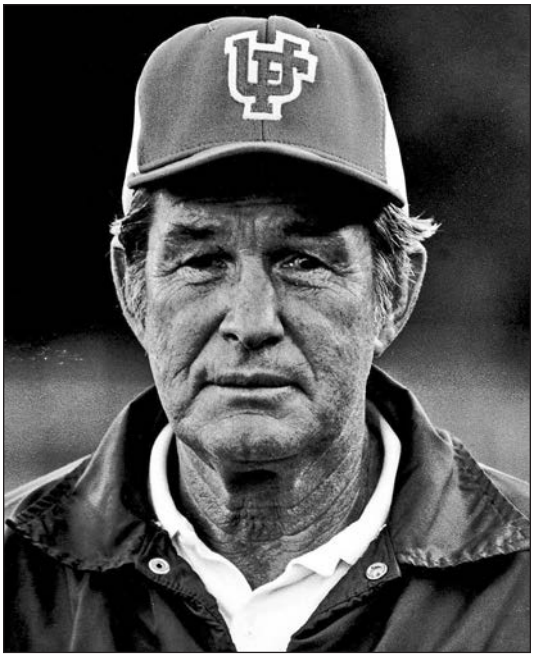
REMEMBERING COACH FULLER



REMEMBERING COACH FULLER

Dave Fuller, the winningest baseball coach in University of Florida history, passed away in September 2009 at the age of 94.

"Coach Fuller's loyalty and dedication to the coaching profession, and his love of the University of Florida, will always be remembered," said UF Director of Athletics Jeremy Foley. "He had a significant positive influence on countless athletes, coaches and administrators."

Fuller guided the Gator baseball program from 1948-75, producing a record of 557-354-6 (.611) and SEC Championships in 1952, 1956 and 1962, and he was selected as SEC Coach of the Year all three years. His clubs also won four Eastern Division titles, and played in four NCAA Regional tournaments.

Coach Fuller is shown congratulating catcher Jerry Bilyk, who was the first Gator to achieve All-SEC status in back-to-back seasons when he accomplished the feat in 1955 and 1956.

He was also a member of the Gator football coaching staff for 29 years (1948-76), the longest run of any assistant coach in UF history. Fuller served in many capacities as head freshman coach, varsity assistant, head scout and a key recruiter under three head coaches, Bob Woodruff, Ray Graves and Doug Dickey.

Fuller's baseball teams produced 47 first-team All-SEC players, and All-Americans Bernie Parrish (1958), Perry McGriff (1959-60) and Tom Moore (1962-63). Six of his players went on to play in the Major Leagues, including Dennis Aust, Doug Corbett, William Graham, Roger Holt, Haywood Sullivan and Dale Willis.

Gator head baseball coach Kevin O'Sullivan said: "There was no better ambassador for Florida baseball than Dave Fuller. What he accomplished during his legendary career with the Gators will never be forgotten and Coach Fuller embodied all that is best about Florida—loyalty, dedication and the pursuit of excellence. His life touched players, families, staff and alumni and his impact on our baseball program is immeasurable. Coach Fuller is a true representative of the Gator tradition and he will be missed."

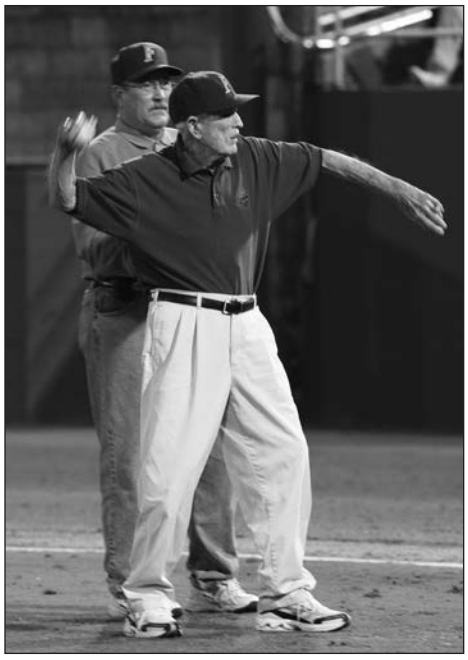
A star athlete at Wake Forest, Fuller started for three seasons in football, basketball and baseball for the Demon Deacons. His greatest fame was in football, where he was a fullback-tailback. Following graduation, he played professional baseball with Portsmouth (Va.) of the Dixie League and Wilson (N.C.) and Goldsboro (N.C.) of the Coastal Plain League.

Fuller used to tell his friends that his inability to hit the curve ball encouraged him to get into coaching. His coaching background included: head football, basketball and baseball at Perquimans Co. High School, Hertford, N.C. (1940-41-42), backfield coach, Maryville (Mo.) Teachers College (1943—Navy V2 Program) and he joined the Gator staff following the end of World War II.

Fuller's tutelage with Florida's 1963 pitching staff resulted in a then-school-record 30 wins, a plateau that the squad did not reach again until 1977 (39-18).

During an unparalleled career directing the Gator baseball program, Fuller compiled a record of 557-354-6 (.611) and captured SEC Championships in 1952, 1956 and 1962.

Fuller and his late wife Patricia had four children, daughter Pat, and sons Dave, Len and John all graduated from the University of Florida and also represented the Gators on the diamond. Dave lettered in baseball during the 1967-68 seasons, Len donned the Orange and Blue in both baseball and football in 1970-71, while John (1972-74) earned All-SEC and All-SEC Eastern Division recognition in his final two seasons at catcher.



Coach Fuller threw out the ceremonial first pitch prior to the Gators' 2008 season opener, a 10-7 victory in Kevin O'Sullivan's first game at the helm.
